CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

On behalf of the board (the "Board") of directors (the "Director(s)") of Southwest Securities International Securities Limited (the "Company" or "SWSI"), I hereby present the annual report and audited consolidated financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries (together the "Group") for the year ended 31 December 2020 (the "Review Period"/the "Year").

In 2020, the COVID-19 pandemic swept the world with over 100 million confirmed cases and over 2 million fatal cases worldwide. Lockdowns or border controls were being imposed in various countries, and the global economy was hit hard as a result. As predicted by IMF, World Bank, OECD and IHS Markit, a market research agency, the global economy will shrink by 3.5%, 4.3%, 4.2%, and 4.2% respectively in 2020, representing the deepest economic recession since World War II. Various industries in Hong Kong were also in a slump, resulting in a high unemployment rate and layoffs by large-scale enterprises. As the government has invested a substantial amount of money to fight the pandemic, it is expected that the government budget deficits for the year will reach a record high of HK$300 billion.

Although China and the United States signed Phase One Trade Deal in early 2020, their relationship continued to deteriorate and the United States subsequently revoked Hong Kong's special trade status. Despite the fact that the listing of A+H shares of Ant Group, which targeted to raise approximately HK$270 billion, has been shelved before its scheduled listing, certain Chinese concepts stocks were secondary listed in Hong Kong during the year. As such, the funds raised through IPOs on Hong Kong Stock Exchange has increased by 26.5% year-on-year to HK$397.5 billion in 2020, but the Hong Kong Stock Exchange's ranking in terms of IPOs has fallen from the first place in 2019 to the second place in 2020.

Looking ahead in 2021, Joe Biden's successful election as President of the United States will be beneficial to the implementation of fiscal stimulus measures. On the other hand, the European Union and the United Kingdom finally reached a package of agreements, including the post-Brexit bilateral trade agreements, marking a new chapter in the relationship between the United Kingdom and the European Union. The COVID-19 pandemic has exerted great pressures on global economic growth. However, with the launch of vaccination programmes, the fundamentals of long-term positive economic growth will remain unchanged.

During the Review Period, the total assets of the Company amounted to approximately HK$2,009 million and the net assets amounted to approximately HK$283 million. During the Review Period, net loss amounted to approximately HK$138 million, mainly attributable to the expected credit losses on accounts receivable arising from margin financing business of approximately HK$150 million for the Review Period.

SWSI will accelerate its business transformation and realize synergies in different divisions. Leveraging on the good investment returns in SP6 last year, the Group will expand its asset management portfolio and classify its products as fixed income and equity-based. With the support from the investment demand on asset management products, investment banks will undertake projects such as bond underwriting, IPO and merger and acquisition, thus providing more product sales for the brokerage business and realizing synergies in different divisions.

On behalf of the Board, I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to our clients, business partners and shareholders for their loyalty and strong support to the Group, and to our staffs for their dedication and hard work that have driven the Group to move forward with prudence.

Wu Jian Chairman Hong Kong, 29 March 2021

MARKET REVIEW

Macro Environment

The COVID-19 pandemic swept the world in 2020. As of the end of January 2021, there were over 100 million confirmed COVID-19 cases and over 2.15 million fatal cases worldwide. Due to this once-in-a-century pandemic, with the emergence of extremely contagious viruses with high fatality rate and variant viruses, mobility restrictions were being imposed in various countries, and the global economy contracted substantially as a result. However, China's GDP managed to record a growth in 2020 with an annual growth rate of 2.3% and a growth rate of 6.5% in the fourth quarter. Given the satisfactory data of COVID-19 vaccines produced by various pharmaceutical companies, it is believed that universal vaccination programmes will be launched around the world in 2021, paving the way for normal daily lives and economic activities as soon as possible. Following the conclusion of the presidential election in the United States, President Joe Biden, upon taking office, is faced with the economic challenges posed by COVID-19 to the United States. He will have to find a way to restore the relationships between the United States and allied countries, and determine whether there will be any major changes in the policies towards China. As for the European market, the United Kingdom eventually succeeded in reaching an agreement with the European Union before the hard Brexit deadline. It is expected that the United Kingdom will reach trade agreements with other countries during the year. It is also anticipated that the long-negotiated commercial investment agreement entered into between the European Union and China at the end of 2020 will be put forward at European Parliament for approval during the year. On the other hand, the geopolitical situations were intensifying, characterized by the increased friction between China and the United States over the technology sector and the Hong Kong issue, the border dispute between China and India in May 2020, the deteriorating relationship between China and Australia in 2020, and the escalated tensions between South Korea and North Korea following North Korea's demolishment of the Inter-Korean Liaison Office in June 2020. Due to the growing risk-averse sentiment as a result of geopolitical uncertainties, coupled with a global low interest rate environment, the prices of precious metals and cryptocurrencies continued to increase. As of the end of December 2020, the international gold price closed at nearly US$1,900 per ounce, representing an increase of nearly 25% for the year. As of the end of December 2020, the Bitcoin price closed at nearly US$29,000, representing a dramatic increase of over 3 times for the year.

Hong Kong Stock Market

The Hang Seng Index began to fall in mid-January 2020. Stocks listed in the United States have also triggered circuit breakers four times in March. The Hang Seng Index fell nearly 10% in a single month to a low at 21,139 points. There were no local confirmed cases but only sporadic cases for 23 consecutive days in Hong Kong from April to May. In May, in light of the release of draft National Security Law, social unrest with growing social activities in Hong Kong, and revocation of Hong Kong's special trade status by the United States Department of Commerce, the relationship between China and the United States was at swords' points. At the end of June, the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress unanimously passed the National Security Law. The Hang Seng Index rebounded by 6.4% in June. Due to the rebound of the COVID-19 pandemic in Europe and the absence of economic stimulus measures in the United States, the Hang Seng Index fell 6.8% in September. Given the settlement of the presidential election in the United States in early November and promising COVID-19 vaccines news, the Hang Seng Index surged by 9.3% in a single month. The Hang Seng Index eventually closed at 27,231 points at the end of December 2020, representing a drop of 3.4% from that at the end of December 2019. With the launch of COVID-19 vaccination programmes worldwide, it is expected that global economic activities will start to resume in the second half of the year if the COVID-19 pandemic is under control and no obvious adverse reactions to the vaccine is reported.

At the end of December 2020, 2,538 companies listed on the Main Board and the GEM (including 2,170 companies listed on the Main Board, up by 99 or 4.8% as compared with the end of December 2019), representing an increase of 89 or 3.6% as compared with the end of December 2019, and the total market value of the stock market increased by 24.5% to HK$47.5 trillion. Due to the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, 154 new companies were listed (including 8 companies which transferred their listing from the GEM to the Main Board) in 2020, representing a decrease of 29 or 15.8% year-on-year.

BUSINESS REVIEW

The Group's principal businesses include brokerage and margin financing, corporate finance, asset management and proprietary trading. During the Review Period, the Group recorded a loss before tax of approximately HK$138.5 million (2019: loss before tax of HK$346.8 million), representing a decrease in loss before tax of approximately HK$208.3 million or 60.1% as compared to that in the last review period. The following are the items with significant fluctuations:

The Group recorded net gains from proprietary trading during the Review Period amounted to approximately HK$200.6 million (2019: net gains of HK$86.4 million), representing an increase in net gains of approximately HK$114.2 million or 132.2% as compared to that in the last review period.

The Group's revenue from brokerage and margin financing for the Review Period amounted to approximately HK$27.7 million (2019: HK$109.0 million), representing a decrease of approximately HK$81.3 million or 74.6% as compared to that in the last review period.

The Group's expected credit losses on financial assets for the Review Period amounted to approximately HK$149.3 million (2019: HK$318.5 million), representing a decrease of approximately HK$169.2 million or 53.1% as compared to that in the last review period.

Brokerage and Margin Financing

Revenue generated from the Group's brokerage and margin financing business during the Review Period amounted to approximately HK$27.7 million (2019: HK$109.0 million).

The Group's brokerage and margin financing business mainly includes agency trading of securities, futures and options trading, and provision of insurance brokerage services, margin financing services, financial products business and one-stop integrated investment and financing services for high-net-worth customers.

In terms of brokerage business, commission revenue saw a decline due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The brokerage commission revenue during the Review Period amounted to approximately HK$13.5 million (2019: HK$18.1 million), representing a year-on-year decrease of approximately HK$4.6 million or 25.0%.

In terms of margin financing business, the interest income during the Review Period amounted to approximately HK$14.2 million (2019: HK$91.0 million), representing a year-on-year decrease of approximately HK$76.8 million or 84.4% mainly due to the suspension of interest income recognition of the credit-impaired margin loan. During the Review Period, the Group held fast to measures to strictly monitor credit risks and equity concentration risks.

Corporate Finance

Revenue generated from the Group's corporate finance business during the Review Period amounted to approximately HK$22.9 million (2019: HK$36.6 million).

The Group's corporate finance business includes providing Hong Kong sponsor services, underwriting & placement services, financial advisory services and financing arrangement services to corporate clients. During the Review Period, the Group's corporate finance business recorded a revenue of approximately HK$22.9 million (2019: HK$36.6 million), representing a year-on-year decrease of approximately HK$13.7 million or 37.4%, which was mainly due to the decrease in revenue from sponsor services and underwriting & placement services.

In terms of sponsor services, Southwest Securities (HK) Capital Limited ("SWSCAP"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, acted as a sole sponsor to assist Shandong Fengxiang Co., Ltd. (9977.HK) in its successful listing on the Main Board of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange during the Review Period, and acted as a joint sponsor to assist Tak Lee Machinery Holdings Limited (2102.HK) in its successful transfer of listing from GEM to the Main Board of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange during the Review Period. SWSCAP also assisted its clients in submitting applications of 3 sole sponsorship projects to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange during the Review Period. In terms of financial advisory services projects, as at the end of December 2020, there were a total of 10 ongoing advisory services projects, bringing a stable source of income to the Group.

Given that the global economy remained heavily dragged down by the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020 and Hong Kong is currently still witnessing the fourth wave of local outbreaks, it is expected that substantial uncertainties will sustain in Hong Kong's economic outlook and IPO market in the first half of 2021. The Group will play its role as usual and further strengthen the cross-border collaboration with Southwest Securities Co., Ltd. ("SWSC"), its parent company, in an effort to provide various types of advisory services and financial services for high-quality domestic enterprises when they enter the Hong Kong capital market.

Asset Management

During the Review Period, the Group's asset management business recorded no revenue (2019: HK$507,000).

During the Review Period, the rate of return of the investment portfolio of the Group's structured fund SP6, which is managed by the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, Southwest Securities (HK) Asset Management Limited, reached double digits with its overall returns outperforming the market. Our business team is aggressively planning to cooperate with its distributors to distribute fund shares and seek more potential investors so as to scale up its assets under management. Leveraging on its accumulated experience and solid track record, it is expected that the Group will achieve better fund performance and attract more high-quality investors in the coming year to diversify the fund investor base.

Proprietary Trading

The Group's proprietary trading business recorded net gains of approximately HK$200.6 million (2019: net gains of HK$86.4 million) during the Review Period.

The Group adjusted its investment strategies in the second half of 2019. By using macro hedging strategies on the premise of balancing risks and returns, and focusing on investments in China-affiliated blue chips on the backdrop of rapid economic recovery in the PRC after the COVID-19 pandemic, the Group achieved satisfactory results in 2020 under such volatile market environment based on accurate research and study with the assistance of excellent investment personnel.

Other Income and Gains

During the Review Period, the Group's other income and gains amounted to approximately HK$37.1 million (2019: HK$30.5 million).

The increase in other income and gains during the Review Period was mainly due to the increase in net exchange gains.

Staff Costs

During the Review Period, the Group's staff costs amounted to approximately HK$97.0 million (2019: HK$75.2 million).

The number of staff and fixed costs decreased during the Review Period. As part of the salaries of frontline staff was linked to their performance, their salaries increased in tandem with the increase in their business performance, thus raising the overall staff costs of the Group. The Group also made flexible adjustments to its staffing in response to business growth and resource allocation.

Fee and Commission Expenses

The Group's fee and commission expenses during the Review Period amounted to approximately HK$14.8 million (2019: HK$16.9 million).

Fee and commission expenses mainly include commissions paid for brokerage business, proprietary trading business and corporate finance business transactions. The decrease in commission expenses was mainly attributable to the decrease in trading volume of brokerage business and corporate finance business.

Finance Costs

The Group's finance costs during the Review Period amounted to approximately HK$116.1 million (2019: HK$138.8 million).

The finance costs were mainly interest expenses on bonds payable. In mid-April 2019, the Group issued bonds of US$200 million for a term of two years to repay the bonds payable of HK$780 million and US$150 million due in mid-May 2019. Due to the smaller bonds issuance size in mid-April 2019 and the duplicate interests for the period from mid-April 2019 to mid-May 2019, the finance costs decreased year-on-year by HK$22.7 million or 16%.

FUTURE PROSPECTS

From 2021, the Group will improve its overall strengths in the following four aspects:

Firstly, SWSI will expand financing channels for replenishment of its working capital. Through issuance of bonds and other financing methods, SWSI plans to enhance its capital structure, maintain the scale of its working capital and further reduce its cost of capital. Meanwhile, SWSI will continue to introduce strategic investors and look for other financing methods such as raising bank loans so as to consolidate its capital strength.

Secondly, SWSI will accelerate its business transformation and realize synergies in different divisions. Leveraging on the good investment returns in SP6 last year, the Group will expand its asset management portfolio and classify its products as fixed income and equity-based. With the support from the investment demand on asset management products, investment banks will undertake projects such as bond underwriting, IPO and merger and acquisition, thus providing more product sales for the brokerage business and realizing synergies in different divisions.

Thirdly, SWSI will strengthen its cost control and improve its operational efficiency. SWSI intends to reduce financial costs and operating expenses and utilize resources in an efficient manner, so as to broaden sources of income and reduce expenditures and strive for steady development.

Fourthly, SWSI will strengthen cross-border collaboration under the supervision and guidance of SWSC. Under the new development pattern of "focusing on domestic macro-circulation, along with international and domestic dualcirculation and mutual promotion", and by leveraging on SWSI's domestic and overseas capital market connections, SWSC will provide domestic and overseas investment and financing services for domestic enterprises, including those in Chongqing. By strengthening the collaboration with its parent company and overseas subsidiaries, the Group is committed to enhancing its capability for serving entities.

- Actively adopting paper saving measures, and relevant measures will be explained in the "Waste Management" section of aspect A1;
- Actively adopting environmental protection and energy conservation measures, and relevant measures will be explained in the "Energy Consumption" section of aspect A2;
- Switching off the engines when vehicles are not in use;
- Using unleaded fuel and low-sulphur fuel according to the law;
- Eliminating vehicles that are not up to standard;
- Conducting regular maintenance of vehicles to ensure that engine performance does not impede the effective use of fuel;
- Optimising operational procedures to increase utilization and reduce vehicle idle time;
- Scheduling car maintenance after high mileage. Repair immediately if faulty parts are identified;
- Encouraging employees to take public transport instead of driving to work; and
- Reducing the number of business trips through electronic communication such as video or audio conferencing.

In addition to the above measures, the Group also propagates the message of environmental protection to employees to raise their awareness. Also, the office has posted notices and posters of green information to promote environmental management best practices.

During the Reporting Period, the total GHG emissions decreased approximately 15.13% from approximately 149.00 tCO_2e in 2019 to approximately 126.46 tCO_2e in 2020. The decrease was due to the work-from-home policy adopted by the Group and the reduction in face-to-face business visits to avoid infection during the severe period of Coronavirus Disease 2019 ("COVID-19"). As a result, employees spent less time working in the office and the use of vehicles was also reduced.

Domestic Sewage

The Group's daily operations do not consume significant volume of water, and therefore the Group's business activities did not generate any material discharge into water. The majority of the water supply facilities and drainage system of the Group are provided and managed by the relevant property management company.

A. ENVIRONMENTAL ASPECTS (Continued)

A1. Emissions (Continued)

Waste Management

The Group follows the principles of waste management and strives to properly handle and dispose of all wastes related to its operations. All of its waste management practices are in line with local environmental laws and regulations. Paper and other solid wastes are the major non-hazardous wastes generated by the Group's business activities. After collection and separation, such wastes are collected and handled centrally by general waste collection service provider, while recyclables, like paper, will be recycled.

The Group monitors the consumption of paper, toner cartridge and ink cartridge regularly and implements various reduction measures. Solid wastes will be collected in a centralised way by property management. The Group encourages employees to recycle office paper and toner cartridges, and to reuse office stationeries to reduce solid wastes. When the notice of changing cartridge appeared on the copier, the Group requires employees to shake the toner cartridge to extend its lifespan. The Group also posts labels in different areas at the office to remind employees to use less paper. The Group also provides related facilities at the workplace to encourage employees to separate waste at source and recycle waste materials, striving to achieve waste reduction, reusability and recycling targets in its operations. The Group maintains high standards in waste reduction and educates employees on the importance of sustainable development while providing related support, in order to encourage sustainability practices and strengthen their knowledge of sustainability.

The Group reduces paper consumption through the following initiatives:

- Using FSC or PEFC paper to reduce the harm to the environment;
- Encouraging employees to use copiers instead of multi-function printers for photocopying in order to reduce the number of toner cartridge orders;
- Circulating the existing printing amount to all employee so as to prompt them to think before they print;
- Setting the default setting of the printer to double-sided printing;
- Previewing the file before printing, adjusting page layout or margins;
- Using the access card to record the paper usage of each employee in printing or copying;
- Printing the required pages accurately to prevent wastage;
- Using office automated systems and emails for internal documentation;
- Using the back of the old documents for printing or as a scratch paper; and
- Collecting used paper for recycling.

During the Reporting Period, the Group reduced paper consumption by approximately 84.48% and recycled 1,485 kg of paper when compared with the financial year ended 31 December 2019. The reduction in paper consumption was mainly because the Group adopted the work-from-home policy during the severe period of COVID-19. The time employees working at the office thus decreased.

The summary of major non-hazardous wastes discharge performance:

Category of waste	Unit	2020	2019
Paper	tonnes	0.09	0.58
Other solid waste	tonnes	0.48	0.48
Total non-hazardous waste	tonnes	0.57	1.06
Intensity	tonnes/employee	0.01	0.01

Due to its business nature, the Group did not generate hazardous wastes from its operations.

A2. Use of Resources

The Group upholds and promotes the principle of effective use of resources. The Group has immediate monitoring on potential environmental impact from its business operations. Through the 4Rs principles, namely, "reduce, reuse, recycle and replace", the Group promotes green office and operation environment, and minimises the environmental impact of the Group. As mentioned in aspect A1, the Group has developed policies and procedures associated with environmental management. The Group has recorded the monthly consumption of resources like electricity and gasoline. Through the analysis of the consumption behaviour, the Group has prioritised management on major energy consumption facilities, and standardised the operation process of those facilities in order to use energy effectively.

Energy Consumption

In daily production and operation process, the Group's main forms of energy consumption are gasoline consumption for transportation and electricity consumption for its operations. The Group's office is equipped with various glazed partitions for maximising the use of natural light to reduce energy consumption. The existing office has also installed energy efficiency lamps (such as LED and T5 fluorescent tubes) and centralised air conditioning system (except dealing room).

The Group has formulated rules and regulations to achieve the goal of energy conservation and efficiency. Such measures are listed below:

- Cleaning office equipment regularly to maintain high energy efficiency;
- Performing regular check on the lighting system;
- Placing "Save electricity, turn off idle lights" signage in prominent places to encourage electricity saving;
- Adding timer to water dispensers for energy saving;
- Using air-conditioned server rack in server room to reduce the use of 24 hours air-conditioning;

A2. Use of Resources (Continued)

- Installing translucent curtains to let light through and to maintain effective air conditioning;
- Using electronic equipment with energy saving label;
- Turning off all unnecessary lights, air conditioners, computers and other office equipment in office areas, conference rooms and corridors when they are not in use to avoid waste of electricity;
- Unless necessary, employees are not allowed to stay in the office to avoid waste of electricity; and
- Enhancing the maintenance and overhaul of equipment, maintain the best condition of all electronic equipment for effective use of electricity.

In addition, the Group strives to promote energy conservation and environmental protection awareness into the work and life of employees by posing power-saving slogans.

During the Reporting Period, the energy consumption decreased approximately 19.70% from approximately 199,708.02 kWh in 2019 to approximately 160,361.90 kWh in 2020. The decrease was due to the work-from-home policy adopted by the Group and the reduction in face-to-face business visits to avoid infection during the severe period of COVID-19. As a result, employees spent less time working in the office and the use of vehicles was also reduced.

The summary of energy consumption performance:

Type of energy	Unit	2020	2019
Gasoline	kWh	7,237.90	25,773.02
Electricity	kWh	153,124.00	173,935.00
Total energy consumption	kWh	160,361.90	199,708.02
Intensity	kWh/employee	1,705.98	1,767.33

Water Consumption

The Group's water usage is mainly domestic sewage in office areas. The Group's water consumption expenses are included in the property management fee. Therefore, the Group did not have water consumption recorded during the Reporting Period.

The Group is dedicated to promoting better utilisation of water resources and conserving water by adopting the following practices:

- Fixing dripping taps immediately to avoid further leakage of the water supply system;
- Fitting flow controller onto water tap to reduce water consumption; and
- Presenting "Saving Water Resource" signage in prominent places to encourage water conservation.

With the above water conservation measures, employees' awareness of water conservation has improved.

Due to the Group's business nature and the major operations are mainly in the city, the procurement of suitable water sources is not relevant to the Group.

Use of Packaging Material

Due to its business nature, the Group does not require the use of significant amounts of packaging materials.

A3. The Environment and Natural Resources

The Group's businesses have no significant impact on the environment. The Group reviews its environmental policy from time to time and will consider implementing further eco-friendly measures and practices in the Group's business operations in order to enhance environmental sustainability.

B. SOCIAL ASPECTS

Employment and Labour Practices

B1. Employment

Employees are the greatest and most valuable asset of the Group and its core competitive advantage, hence it is important and essential to attract, cultivate and retain employees. Health and Safety (Continued)

In response to the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Group has taken certain actions to strengthen the health and safety precautionary measures in our workplace so as to ensure the health of our employees, such as:

- Requiring employees and visitors to have temperature check before entering office;
- Establishing a pre-registration scheme for visitors;
- Arranging employees to work from home;
- Encouraging employees to replace surgical masks and clean hands with hand sanitiser before entering office;
- Encouraging employees to organise video conferences or other forms of remote communication instead of face-to-face meetings; and
- Following the guidelines and announcements made by the Center for Health Protection in regards to epidemic prevention.

During the Reporting Period, the Group did not record any accidents that resulted in death or serious physical injury, and no claims or compensation was paid to its employees due to such events. In addition, no material non-compliance of laws and regulations relevant to health and safety of employees were found.

B3. Development and Training

Development and Training

The Group focuses on the establishment of internal management training, enhancing the mutual development of employees. The Group provides diverse training to fulfil the needs of different job duties, enriches the technical knowledge and skills of employees, and provides high quality service, boosting the Group's development and eventually fulfilling the common development goal of both the Group and its employees.

The Group offers different training and development opportunities to its employees, so as to strengthen employees' work-related skills and to improve their efficiency and productivity.

The Group has training rooms equipped with professional training facilities for organising training programs. Most of the Group's training programs are tailored to regulate activities and are aimed at fulfilling the Securities and Futures Commission's ("SFC") Continuous Professional Training ("CPT") requirement for licensed employees. To maintain their professional competence to remain fit and proper, licensed employees must undertake a minimum of 5 CPT hours per calendar year for each regulated activity they engage in. The Group provides employees with CPT training courses related to anti-money laundering and anti-terrorist financing, SFC rules and regulations, anti-corruption and risk management. The Group maintains the attendance or completion records of the CPT activities for a minimum of 3 years to enable the Group to meet the requirements of the SFC.

In selecting suppliers, a comprehensive assessment is performed applying different criteria including but not limited to the supplier's reputation, track record, expertise, capacity credibility, business stability and product quality. Approved suppliers are typically certified by local regulators and authorities. The Group insists on choosing suppliers that are also socially sustainable in its business operations, financially stable and legally responsible according to local laws. The Group conducts assessment of its suppliers regularly. The Group constantly reviews the public enforcement information of the local regulatory authorities, and checks whether the suppliers have been reprimanded or punished by local regulatory authorities. The Group will also take measures to examine whether suppliers have complied with relevant laws and regulations, and other standards for health, safety, forced labour and child labour, as well as to examine suppliers' awareness of these aspects.

The Group maintains a close liaison with its suppliers to ensure that they comply with local laws and regulations. Meetings with the suppliers are held periodically for sharing market information and product updates. Given the firm and stable relationship between the Group and its suppliers, the Group is quickly informed of the suppliers' situation through the internet, phone calls, and other communication means. The Group monitors the quality of its suppliers and supply chain practices on a strict and continuous basis.

In addition, the Group's procurement is conducted on an open, fair and impartial basis without any discrimination against any particular supplier, nor corruption and bribery. Employees and any party related to the relevant suppliers are forbidden to take part in the subject procurement. The Group places emphasis on the integrity of its suppliers.

B6. Product Responsibility

The Group maintains on-going communication with its customers to ensure understanding of their expectations and satisfying their demands. The Group keeps on improving its service quality by monitoring customer satisfaction levels.

As a professional financial services provider, the Group complies with the requirements as set out by various regulators such as Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited, the SFC, the Hong Kong Independent Commission Against Corruption, the Hong Kong Confederation of Insurance Brokers, the Professional Insurance Brokers Association, the Insurance Authority and the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Authority. B6. Product Responsibility (Continued)

Products and Services Quality

The Group has established internal procedures and manuals such as General Compliance Manual, Sales Manual for the Brokerage Department and to ensure that products and services provided by the Group comply with the requirements of the aforesaid manuals. The Group is committed to providing clear and balanced information to its clients. Product features, terms and conditions, and any associated risks are clearly communicated by the Group's licensed employees through emails, telephones (with recording function) and relevant documents to its clients, so they can make an informed decision. Clients that are interested in the Group's services are required to sign the client agreement, acknowledging its terms and conditions along with the associated risks. The Group follows the regulators' guidelines on Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Financing of Terrorism in performing "Customer Due Diligence" and "Customer Risk Assessment" procedures implemented in relation to its clients. This helps the Group understand its clients' financial background, trading experience and risk tolerance level before providing them with suitable products and services.

An online trading system is used to support the Group's provision of products and services via the internet. The Group's online trading system has real-time monitoring function. The Group can check the financing status of each client at all times, allowing the Group to provide timely suggestions to its clients. The Group uses a system with two different internet connections of mutual backup function, helping to prevent client loss due to wire-network failures or delays in transactions. The Group also has a backup server on standby for preventing data loss. A comprehensive emergency plan has been set up, and relevant departments conduct emergency drills regularly, to ensure that proper measures are taken efficiently when there is an emergency. In addition, the Group uses a maker-and-checker mechanism to avoid any misappropriation or unauthorised use of clients' money and assets.

Advertising, Labelling and Sales

The Group is committed to not providing advertisements that may give investors any impression of guaranteed profits. In the Group's dealings with its clients, information provided should be complete, true, accurate, clear, and in compliance with relevant laws and regulations such as the Securities and Futures Ordinance and the Insurance Ordinance. Marketing staff should obtain written approval from the relevant department head and from the Legal and Compliance ("L&C") Department before the publication of any advertisement or sales literature, to ensure that the Group's advertisements do not contain false, misleading and deceptive statements, commitments and forecasts, and to ensure that information provided to customers is true, accurate, not misleading, and in compliance with relevant laws and regulations.

In addition, the Group has fairly strict specifications to monitor the behaviour of all staff and prohibits high-pressure sales tactics to induce customer trading, so as to prevent customers from making investment decisions under pressure or in haste. At the same time, the Group gives enough time to customers to understand the relevant materials, consider carefully and seek independent third-party advice, if necessary, before making any investment decisions.

Customer Service

The Group strives to provide prompt responses to client complaints. The Group collects complaints from its clients through various channels such as customer service hotline, emails, or letters. The Customer Services Department is responsible for acknowledging the complaint, identifying the issues, and referring the cases to L&C Department for investigation. Subsequently, a formal reply will be issued to the client. An investigation report will be filed to record the complaint and to prevent recurrence of similar issues. In case of any significant issues, the Group will notify relevant parties in accordance with the rules and regulations of SFC and other relevant regulatory units.

Protection of Customer Information

At all times, the Group is committed to protecting clients' privacy, and in abiding by the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance and other relevant codes of practice (issued by the Privacy Commissioner for Personal Data) in collection, use and holding of client's information. The Group has a General Compliance Manual that sets out the specific procedure for handling and protecting client data. The Group owes a contractual obligation of confidentiality to clients in relation to their information; therefore, the Group treats clients' transaction records and personal information as private and confidential, subject to disclosure requirements under relevant laws, rules and regulations which the Group is required to comply with. Information collected will only be used for the purpose for which it has been collected. Clients will be told in advance on how the collected data will be used. The Group prohibits the provision of consumer information to a third party without client authorisation from its client. Clients always have the rights to review and revise their data, and to opt out from any direct marketing events. If there are any requests for client information or client's business, the L&C Department will be consulted to ensure the appropriateness of disclosure under applicable laws, regulations and policies. A strong commitment to protecting clients' privacy has enabled the Group to stay competitive in the market. In addition, the Group has established the Information System Accident Handling Process. In the event of an information system accident, the Group will handle the accident according to the following procedures to ensure the stability and security of the Group's information system to protect customer privacy. The information system accident handling process is as follows:

- 1. Identify information system accidents
- 2. Report the accident to the department head and director
- 3. Accident analysis and implementation of interim solutions
- 4. Investigate the cause of the accident and find a long-term solution
- 5. Implement long-term solutions and issue accident reports

IP Rights

The Group is dedicated to protecting and enforcing the Group's own IP rights as well as the IP rights of other enterprises. The Group obtains proper license for software and information the Group used in its business operation. B7. Anti-corruption

Anti-Corruption

The Group believes that a corporate culture of high integrity is the key to its continued success. Therefore, the Group recognises the importance of its anti-corruption work, policy and system, and is committed to building a fair, open and transparent corporate culture. To maintain a fair, ethical and efficient business and working environment, the Group strictly adheres to the laws and regulations relating to anti-corruption and bribery irrespective of the area or country where the Group conducts its business, and the Group has complied with the Prevention of Bribery Ordinance of Hong Kong.

The Group has formulated and strictly enforced its anti-corruption policies as stipulated in the Prevention of Bribery Guideline. Employees are expected to discharge their duties with integrity, and to abstain from engaging in any activities that involve bribery, extortion, fraud and money laundering. Employees should also make declaration to the L&C Department for any direct or indirect interest in businesses that competes with the Group or with which the Group has business dealings. Any breach of policies by an employee will be subject to disciplinary actions or have his/her employment contract terminated, and the employee may be prosecuted under the Prevention of Bribery Ordinance. Whistle-blowers can report verbally or in writing to their immediate supervisor or the L&C Department with full details and supporting evidence of the suspected misconduct or malpractice. The Group advocates a confidentiality mechanism to protect the whistle-blowers from any unfair dismissal or victimisation. Where criminality is suspected after consulting the L&C Department, a report is to be made to the relevant regulators or law enforcement authorities.

In addition, the Group has established the Anti-Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Policy, and cooperates with law enforcement agencies to take appropriate measures to comprehensively combat money laundering and terrorist financing activities to prevent criminals or terrorists, and to do money laundering action and terrorist financing through the Group.

During the Reporting Period, one of the Group's wholly-owned subsidiaries, Southwest Securities (HK) Brokerage Limited ("SWSB"), has been reprimanded and fined $5 million by the SFC for failures in complying with anti-money laundering and counter-terrorist financing (AML/CFT) regulatory requirements in 2016.

B8. Community Investment

Corporate Social Responsibility

The Group's employees believe that the Group, as a corporate citizen, should have the sense of fulfilling its social responsibility for the society. The core value of the Group is that sustainable development goals must be achieved by maintaining a balance between the Group's development and the development of the society. Hence, the Group pays attention to the difficulties and social needs of the minorities and vulnerable groups in the society, actively donates and contributes to the society and promotes a harmonious society. The Group proactively partners and works with different non-governmental organizations and charity organizations to conduct charitable and social activities so as to respond to the society's needs and establish a good model for the public.

During the Reporting Period, the Group has made donations to the Hong Kong Federation of Youth Groups.

In recognition of the Group's continuous contribution to the community, the Group has been recognised as a "Heart to Heart Company" by the Hong Kong Federation of Youth Groups since 2009 and during the Reporting Period.

The Group also hopes to raise employees' sense of social responsibility. Therefore, the Group has encouraged employees to participate in charity activities during their work and personal time to make greater contributions to the community.

The Board recognizes the importance of maintaining a high standard of corporate governance to protect and enhance the benefits of shareholders. The Board and senior management of the Company recognizes their responsibility to maintain the interests of the shareholders and to enhance the value of such interests. The Board also believes a deliberate policy of corporate governance can facilitate a company in rapid growth under a healthy governance structure and strengthen the confidence of the shareholders of the Company (the "Shareholders") and investors.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

During the year ended 31 December 2020 (the "Year"), the Company has applied the principles of, and has complied with, all the code provisions set out in the Corporate Governance Code (the "CG Code") contained in Appendix 14 of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Listing Rules").

DIRECTORS' SECURITIES TRANSACTIONS

The Company has adopted the Model Code for Securities Transactions by Directors of the Listed Issuers (the "Model Code") set out in Appendix 10 to the Listing Rules during the Year. The Company has made specific enquiry with each Director and, based on such enquiry, confirmed that all Directors have complied with the required standard and code of conduct regarding directors' securities transactions, set out in the Model Code throughout the Year. Employees and consultants who are privy to inside information are required to follow the Model Code.

DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS LIABILITY INSURANCE

During the Year, the Company arranged for appropriate cover on Directors' and officers' liability insurance policy to indemnify the Directors and officers for liabilities arising from the corporate activities. The coverage and the amount insured under such policy are reviewed annually by the Company. No legal actions were made against any of the Directors in relation to their duties performed for the Company during the Year.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board Composition

As at 31 December 2020, the Board comprises three executive directors and three independent non-executive directors, namely:

Executive Directors:	Mr. WU Jian (Chairman) Mr. PU Rui (Chief Executive Officer) (resigned on 29 March 2021) Dr. ZHAO Mingxun
Independent Non-executive Directors:	Mr. MENG Gaoyuan Dr. GUAN Wenwei Mr. LIANG Jilin (appointed on 1 July 2020)

Roles and Responsibilities

The Board is responsible for overseeing the overall business strategy, management planning and control of the Company. The management is responsible for day-to-day management of the Group. The Directors have accumulated sufficient and valuable experience to carry out their duties in an efficient and effective manner. Other than the statutory duties imposed on each of them, all of the Directors have exercised due care in monitoring the corporate matters of the Company and have provided grave concern, sufficient time and attention to all the significant issues and affairs of the Group.

Each newly appointed Director is provided with an induction on the first occasion of his/her appointment to ensure that he/she has adequate understanding of the businesses and operations of the Group. The Directors are also kept informed on a timely basis of their responsibilities and obligations under the Listing Rules, as well as other relevant statutory or regulatory requirements.

Details of the backgrounds and qualifications of the Directors are set out under the section "BIOGRAPHIES OF DIRECTORS AND SENIOR MANAGEMENT" in this report.

Directors were appointed for a specific term where all Directors were appointed for a period of 3 years. At least one-third of the Directors for the time being (or, if their number is not a multiple of three, the number nearest to but not less than one-third) shall retire from office by rotation at least once every three years. The Directors to retire every year will be those who have been longest in office since their last re-election or appointment.

The Board has established a set of board diversity policy setting out the approach to achieve diversity on the Board aiming at enhancing Board effectiveness and corporate governance as well as achieving our business objectives and sustainable development. Board diversity has been considered from a number of aspects, including but not limited to gender, age, cultural and educational background, ethnicity, professional experience, skills, knowledge and length of service. The current Board consists of a diverse mix of Board members appropriate to the requirement of the business of the Company.

The Board is responsible for directing the strategic objectives of the Group and overseeing the management of the business, with the ultimate goal of maximizing the Shareholders' value and long-term success of the Company while the day-to-day management of business and operations are delegated to the chief executive officer, respective Board committees and senior management of the Group.

To the best knowledge of the Directors, there are no relationships among the Board members, including financial, business, family or other material/relevant relationships.

Independent Non-executive Directors

During the Year, the Board has complied with Rules 3.10(1), 3.10(2) and 3.10A of the Listing Rules in having 3 independent non-executive Directors (representing one-third of the Board) from time to time. The independent non-executive Directors, all of whom are independent of the management of the Group's businesses, are highly experienced professionals with substantial experience in areas such as legal, accounting or financial management.

The Company has received annual written confirmation from each independent non-executive Director of his independence to the Group pursuant to the Rule 3.13 of the Listing Rules and considers that all the independent non-executive Directors were acting independently throughout the Year.

Directors' Continuing Professional Development

Directors' training is an ongoing process. All Directors are encouraged to attend the seminars and courses on relevant topics when counting towards continuous professional development training.

Pursuant to A.6.5 of the CG Code, Directors should participate in continuous professional development to develop and refresh their knowledge and skills. This is to ensure that their contribution to the Board remains informed and relevant. According to the records maintained by the Company, during the Year, all Directors participated in continuous professional development through reading materials on regulatory updates, director's duties and responsibilities and corporate governance matters and/or attending relevant seminars or courses provided by professional bodies. All Directors have provided the Company with a record of the relevant training undertaken during the Year as summarized below:

The responsibilities and authorities of the Remuneration Committee are clearly stated in its terms of reference, including but not limited to recommendations to the Board on the Company's policy and structure for all remuneration of the Directors and the senior management and review and approval of the compensation packages of the executive Directors and the senior management and make recommendations to the Board on the remuneration of non-executive Directors. The Board together with the Remuneration Committee monitor the performance of the executive Directors and the senior management. Such division of responsibilities ensures a balance of power. The Remuneration Committee shall meet at any time as and when necessary. Terms of reference of the Remuneration Committee is currently available on the HKEXnews website and the Company's website.

During the Year, the Remuneration Committee performed duties including, reviewing and discussing the Company's remuneration policy and structure of the Directors and senior management, reviewing and approving the remuneration packages of the Directors and senior management and making recommendations to the Board. No director was involved in deciding his/her own remuneration.

The Remuneration Committee held 1 meeting during the Year and the attendance of each member is listed under the heading "ATTENDANCE SUMMARY" below on a named basis.

DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION

The Directors' fees are subject to the Shareholders' approval at general meetings. Other emoluments are determined by the Board with reference to Directors' duties, responsibilities and performance and the results of the Group. In addition, the Directors' remuneration is reviewed by the Remuneration Committee annually. Details of the Directors' remuneration are set out in note 7 of the consolidated financial statements.

None of the Directors has waived any emoluments and up emolument were paid by the Group to any Director as an inducement to join at upon joining the Group or as compensation for loss of office for the Year.

SUMMARY OF THE NOMINATION POLICY

The Company has adopted the nomination policy which sets out the principles and guidelines which the Nomination Committee shall follow in respect of nomination, selection and appointment (including the re-election thereof) of a director of the Company.

The Nomination Committee shall assess the integrity, suitability and ability of a candidate proposed to become a Director, having due regard to the board diversity policy of the Company and other factors as the Nomination Committee considers appropriate. For a candidate proposed to become an independent non-executive Director, the Nomination Committee shall assess the independence of the candidate, to which the independent criteria under the Listing Rules shall be observed.

The Nomination Committee shall make recommendation to the Board for appointment of a candidate to become a Director. The Board shall have the ultimate responsibility for all matters relating to the selection and appointment of a Director.

The Nomination Committee shall from time to time review the nomination policy, as appropriate, to ensure the effectiveness of such policy and shall make recommendation of any revision to the Board.

SUMMARY OF THE BOARD DIVERSITY POLICY

The Company has adopted a board diversity policy (the "Board Diversity Policy") setting out the objectives and the factors to be considered for achieving Board diversity. The Company recognises and embraces the benefits of having a diverse Board to enhance the quality of its performance. All Board appointments will be based on individual merits and competence, and the relevant candidates will be considered against objective criteria including but not limited to gender, age, cultural and educational background, ethnicity, professional experience, skills, knowledge and length of services. The Nomination Committee will monitor the implementation of the Board Diversity Policy and review the same as appropriate. The Board Diversity Policy is currently available on the company's website.

Apart from regular Board meetings, the Chairman also held meetings with the independent non-executive Directors without the presence of other Director during the Year.

The Board members are provided with appropriate and sufficient information in a timely manner to keep abreast of the Group's latest developments. All businesses transacted at board meetings are properly documented and recorded.

All resolutions put forward at general meeting of the Company were voted by way of poll and the announcement on the poll vote results was made by the Company after the general meeting in the manner prescribed under Rule 13.39(5) of the Listing Rules.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITY FOR CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Board acknowledges the responsibility for preparing the accounts which gives a true and fair view, appropriate accounting policies are selected and applied consistently and judgment and estimates are made prudently and reasonably on a going concern basis.

The reporting responsibilities of the Company's external auditor in relation to the financial reporting are set out under the section "INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT" in this annual report.

ACCOUNTABILITY

Directors' Responsibilities for Financial Statements

The Directors acknowledge their responsibilities for the preparation of the Group's financial statements and believe that these statements give a true and fair view of the state of the Group's affairs and of its results. The Board has adopted appropriate accounting policies and made proper estimates for the preparation of financial statements. The Directors confirm that, to the best of their knowledge, information and belief and having made all reasonable enquiries, they are not aware of any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that may cause significant doubt upon the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The Board therefore continues to adopt the going concern approach in preparing the financial statements for the financial year of 2020.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Pan-China (H.K.) CPA Limited retired as auditor at the 2018 AGM and Ernst & Young was appointed as auditor of the Company at the 2018 AGM. There has been no other change in auditor of the Company in the past three years. Ernst & Young is subject to reappointment as independent auditor of the Group at the forthcoming annual general meeting of the Company. It is the auditor's responsibility to form an independent opinion, based on their audit, on those financial statements and to report their opinion solely to the Company and for no other purpose. They do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of the independent auditor's report.

The Audit Committee is responsible for considering the appointment of the external auditor of the Company, Ernst & Young and reviewing any non-audit services performed by the Ernst & Young. The remunerations paid to the external auditors for the provision of services during the Year are set out as follows:

	НК$'000
Audit services	2,532
Non-audit services	635

The non-audit services during the Year provided by the external auditors included interim review and review of policies and procedures.

INTERNAL CONTROL

The legal & compliance department ("L&C") of the Group is responsible for setting and monitoring internal control systems, policies and procedures to ensure the Group's compliance with the relevant and latest laws, rules and regulations. L&C also manages against material legal and compliance risks associated with the business activities of the Group.

The Group's risk management mechanism is also embodied by the three lines of defence for risk management. All executing units serve as the main responsible parties for their respective business risks and are taken as the front line and also the first line of defence for risk management. L&C and the Group's risk control department ("RCM") together constitute the second line of defence for risk management. Different from the business supporting units, L&C and RCM perform their management functions independently of the business units. Charged with the major duty of independent oversight of risks, L&C is responsible for managing compliance risks, whereas RCM is tasked with overall management of financial risks. The internal audit department instead serves as the third line of defence.

The Board acknowledges its responsibility for overseeing the Group's risk management and internal control systems and has reviewed their effectiveness periodically through the Audit Committee.

The internal control system has been reviewed on an ongoing basis throughout the Year by the Audit Committee, as delegated by the Board, in order to make it practical and effective in providing reasonable assurance in relation to protection of material assets and identification of business risks. The Board is of the view that the system of internal control adopted for the Year is sound and is effective to safeguard the interests of the shareholders, customers and the Group's assets.

INTERNAL AUDIT

Pursuant to the audit charter that approved by the Audit Committee and the mission statement stipulates in the audit standard manual, the Group's internal audit department ("IA") provides independent and reasonable assurance that the Group's governance, risk management and internal control processes as designed and implemented by management are adequate and effective. IA reports on the adequacy of system of internal controls to the Audit Committee and management. IA adopts a risk-based approach and in accordance with the internal audit plan approved by the Audit Committee, to conduct independent reviews on areas which is prioritized according to an assessment of current and emerging risks, including financial, operational, compliance and technology risks. Ad hoc reviews will also be conducted on areas of concern identified by the Audit Committee and management when necessary. Results of audit work and the assessment of the overall risk management of areas concerned are reported to the Audit Committee and management at least twice a year. IA closely follows up the rectifications and ensures that processes are in place for recommendation raised in internal audit reports.

RISK MANAGEMENT

During the Year, the senior management was responsible for maintaining and reviewing the effectiveness of the Group's risk control. The risk control is implemented to minimize the risks to which the Group is exposed and used as a management tool for the day-to-day operation of business.

The senior management is primarily responsible for the design, implementation and maintenance of the risk control to safeguard the Shareholders' investment and assets of the Group.

The senior management monitors the business activities closely and reviews regular risk control reports. Proper controls are in place for the recording of complete, accurate and timely management information.

The procedures of the Group's risk management and internal control systems are as follows:

For risk management

• Identification: Identify risks, business objectives and risks that could affect the achievement of objectives. Major risks affecting the operation of the Company include market risk, credit risk, liquidity risk and operational risk.

Market risk is the risk of loss arising from adverse change in fair value or movement in cash flows in respect of financial instruments, due to changes in market prices, interest rates and exchange rates, which mainly exists in the proprietary business and asset management business and other investment-related business of the Group. The Company implemented the risk control indicators such as the scale of risk exposure, concentration and limit of loss to prevent excess risk taken on investment.

Credit risk refers to the potential loss that may arise from the failure of a debtor or counterparty to meet its obligation or commitment to the Group. Company's credit exposure mainly relates financial assets under margin financing, fixed income financial assets, securities lending arrangement and securities and futures brokerage business. The Company has used risk management system to evaluate and monitor the credit risks for clients on real time basis so as to prevent excessive risk concentration that would affect the credit exposure of clients, and identify, report and deal with risk of default as early as possible.

Liquidity risk refers to the risk resulting from the failure to make payment, settlement, reimbursement, redemption and to meet obligations in connection with financial liabilities due to shortage of funds in the ordinary course of business of the Company. In order to manage liquidity risk effectively, the Company has strengthened monitoring and management of usage of large amounts of funds in order to achieve centralized fund allocation.

Operational risk refers to the risk of incurring losses resulting from the inadequacy or defect of internal process, personnel or systems, or from such external events as natural disaster and fraud. In order to manage operational risk effectively, the Company has set up a well-established internal control system and regularly carried out effective assessment of internal control and compliance management throughout the Company.

- Evaluation: Risk management is a continuous process carried out at all levels of the Group. After identifying related risks, the Company will analyze the likelihood and impact of risks and evaluate the risk portfolio accordingly in a timely manner.
- Management: Mitigation measures and plans are then developed based on the risks evaluated and the predetermined risk appetite to manage the risks to an acceptable level. Consider the risk responses, ensure effective communication to the Board and ongoing monitor the residual risks.

For internal control:

- Control environment: A set of standards, processes and structures that provide the basis for carrying out internal control across the Group.
- Risk assessment: A dynamic and iterative process for identifying and analyzing risks to achieve the Group's objectives, forming basis for determining how risks should be managed.
- Control activities: Action established by policies and procedures to help ensure that management directives to mitigate risks to the achievement of objectives are carried out.
- Information and communication: Internal and external communication to provide the Group with the information needed to carry out on day-to-day controls.
- Monitoring: Ongoing and separate evaluations to ascertain whether each components of internal control is present and functioning.

The aforesaid departments responsible for the internal controls and risk management systems shall report to the Board, and the Board acknowledges that it is responsible for the Group's overall risk management and internal control systems and reviewing their effectiveness. Nonetheless, such internal controls and risk management systems are designed to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failure to achieve business objectives, and can only provide reasonable and not absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss.

During the Year, the Board, through the Audit Committee, conducted an annual review on the effectiveness on both of the risk management and internal control systems of the Group and is of the view that the internal control and risk management systems of the Group are effective and adequate.

DISSEMINATION OF INSIDE INFORMATION

The Group has complied with the relevant requirements for disseminating inside information as defined under the Securities and Futures Ordinance so as to ensure inside information is promptly identified and escalated. Directors and senior management of the Group received relevant trainings to ensure inside information remain confidential until the disclosure of such information is appropriately approved, and the dissemination of such information is efficiently and consistently made.

COMPANY SECRETARY

Ms. TAM Kar Bo Carrie, the company secretary of the Company, is a full-time employee of the Company and has confirmed that, in compliance with Rule 3.29 of the Listing Rules, she took no less than 15 hours of relevant professional training during the Year.

COMMUNICATION WITH SHAREHOLDERS

The Group has been devoted to maintain effective communications with the Shareholders and the general public with an aim to improving the transparency of the Group and to provide them with channels to appraise the position of the Group. During the Year, 2020 AGM was held and the notice of 2020 AGM was given to the Shareholders at least 20 clear business days before the meeting. The Chairman of the Board, the chairmen of the audit, remuneration and nomination committees, and all the members of the Board and the external auditor were present at the 2020 AGM to answer the questions from the Shareholders. Each substantially separate issue was dealt with in a separate resolution so that the Shareholders were able to comprehend the matter easily.

Annual and interim reports and any significant events of the Company fall to be disclosed in accordance with the disclosure requirements under the Listing Rules and other applicable regulatory requirements have been published in a timely manner through the websites of the Company and HKEXnews.

The Company has adopted a shareholders' communication policy and will review it on a regular basis to ensure its effectiveness. The purpose of this policy is to ensure the Shareholders be provided with prompt and equal access to information about the Company (including but not limited to its financial performance, strategic goals and plans, material developments, governance and risk profile), in order to enable the Shareholders to assess the Company's overall performance, exercise their rights in an informed manner and engage actively with the Company. The Shareholders' communication policy is currently posted on the Company's website.

DIVIDEND POLICY

During the Year, the Company has adopted a dividend policy setting out the principles for the Board to reference when it considers a recommendation and/or declaration of dividend.

The Board may propose to recommend to the Shareholders and/or declare dividend after taking into consideration of, inter alia, (i) the actual and expected financial performance of the Group for the financial year; (ii) the Group's current and expected working capital requirements and future business plan; (iii) general economic conditions, business cycle and other factors that the Board reasonably considers may have an impact on the business performance of the Group; and (iv) such other factors which the Board may consider appropriate. The declaration of dividends or recommendation on such payment shall be subject to all applicable laws, rules and regulations including but not limited to the Listing Rules, the Companies Ordinance (Chapter 622 of the Laws of Hong Kong), the applicable laws of Bermuda and the memorandum of association and bye-laws of the Company (the "Bye-laws").

SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS

The Company holds an annual general meeting every year and may hold a general meeting known as a special general meeting whenever necessary. Pursuant to Bye-law 58 of the Company's Bye-laws, Shareholders holding not less than one-tenth of the paid-up capital of the Company carrying the right of voting at general meetings of the Company shall at all times have the right, by depositing a written requisition to the Board or the secretary of the Company, to require a special general meeting to be called by the Board for the transaction of any business specified in such requisition and such meeting shall be held within two (2) months after the deposit of such requisition. If within twenty-one (21) days of such deposit the Board fails to proceed to convene such meeting, the requisitionists themselves may do so in the same manner.

Proposals at Shareholders' meetings can be put forward by the members of the Company holding at the date of the submission of the proposals not less than one-tenth (10%) of such of the paid-up capital of the company as at the date of the submission carries the right of voting at general meetings of the Company. The submission of the proposals must be made within three (3) business days after a notice of the Shareholders' meeting has been served to all registered Shareholders by the Board. The proposals must be written and must state the objects of the proposals, and must be signed by the proposers, and mailed and deposited at 40/F., Lee Garden One, 33 Hysan Avenue, Causeway Bay, Hong Kong for attention of the company secretary of the Company; and may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more proposers. The Company will verify the requisition and upon confirmation that the requisition is proper and in order, the Board will update the resolutions by serving sufficient notice in accordance with the statutory requirements to all registered Shareholders, provided that the proposers have deposited a sum of money reasonably sufficient to meet the Company's expenses involved in publishing supplementary circular and updating related resolutions. Alternatively, if the requisition has been verified as not in order, the proposer will be advised of this outcome and accordingly, no resolution will be updated as requested.

The Group values feedback from Shareholders on its efforts to promote transparency and foster investor relationships. Shareholders' enquiries, comments and suggestions to the Board or the Company are welcome and can be addressed to the company secretary by mail to 40/F., Lee Garden One, 33 Hysan Avenue, Causeway Bay, Hong Kong.

The biographical details of Directors and senior management are set out in the section "BIOGRAPHIES OF DIRECTORS AND SENIOR MANAGEMENT" on pages 43 to 45 of this report.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Group also entered into certain transactions with parties regarded as "related parties" under the applicable accounting standards. Details of these transactions are set out in note 31 to the consolidated financial statements. One of these transactions also constituted continuing connected transaction under the Listing Rules, as identified below.

CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTION

On 3 July 2019, the Company entered into the framework agreement with SWSC, pursuant to which the Company conditionally agreed to engage SWSC, and SWSC conditionally agreed to provide to the Company client referral services in relation to financing business for the period from the 3 July 2019 to 31 December 2021 (the "Framework Agreement"). Unless otherwise agreed by SWSC and the Company and/or any of its wholly-owned subsidiary(ies) (the "Company Member"), the referral fee payable by the Company to SWSC for each successful client referral shall be the Standard Service Fee times the Referral Fee Rate. The "Standard Service Fee" represents the service fee to be received by the Company Member from the financing service provided to the client, net of all expenses. The "Referral Fee Rate" shall range from 10% to 50% and vary from one case to another depending on the range and complexity of the work performed by SWSC in every successful client referral case.

Pursuant to the Framework Agreement, the annual caps in respect of the referral fees payable by the Company to SWSC for each of the three years ending 31 December 2021 are HK$9 million, HK$9.45 million and HK$9.93 million respectively.

The Company is owned as to approximately 74.10% by Southwest Securities International Investment Limited ("SSII"), which is in turn wholly-owned by SWSC. Accordingly, SWSC is a connected person of the Company, and the transactions contemplated under the Framework Agreement constitute continuing connected transactions of the Company under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules. The transactions and annual caps under the Framework Agreement are subject to the reporting, announcement and annual review requirements but exempt from the circular and independent Shareholders' approval requirements pursuant to Rule 14A.76(2) of the Listing Rules. Mr. Wu Jian and Mr. Pu Rui (resigned on 29 March 2021), all being Directors connected with SWSC and/or its associates, were considered to have material interests in the transactions and annual caps under the Framework Agreement and have abstained from voting on the Board resolutions in relation thereto. Details of the transaction were disclosed in the announcement of the Company dated 3 July 2019.

During the Year, no transaction contemplated under the Framework Agreement has been entered into and accordingly no referral fee has been paid by the Company. The Company has complied with the disclosure requirements prescribed in Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.

INTERESTS IN TRANSACTIONS, ARRANGEMENTS OR CONTRACTS OF SIGNIFICANCE

The repayment date of the Loan was extended from 13 February 2019 to 28 April 2019 on 13 February 2019 by way of an amendment deed.

On 16 October 2019, the Lender entered into a restructuring deed (the "Restructuring Deed") of even date with the Borrower and the relevant guarantors to, amongst others, extend the repayment date of the outstanding amounts under the facility as follows:

- (i) as to HK$10,000,000 on or before the date falling three days after the date of the Restructuring Deed and as to HK$20,000,000 on or before the date falling thirty days after the date of the Restructuring Deed, in respect of which HK$19,084,932 is to be applied towards repayment of the interests accrued from 13 February 2019 up to and including 15 September 2019 and HK$10,915,068 towards repayment of the Loan;
- (ii) as to HK$30,000,000 on or prior to the date falling six months of the date of the Restructuring Deed, which is to be applied towards repayment of the Loan;
- (iii) as to HK$50,000,000 on or prior to the date falling nine months of the date of the Restructuring Deed, which is to be applied towards repayment of the Loan; and
- (iv) as to the balance of the Loan and all other sums payable on or before the date falling twelve months of the date of the Restructuring Deed.

As at 31 December 2020 and as at 31 March 2021, the outstanding amount of Loan and interest were approximately HK$335.7 million and approximately HK$352.3 million, respectively, with an interest rate of 12% per annum and default interest rate 20% per annum, and were secured by a charge over 588,720,412 ordinary shares in the issued share capital of Yi Hua Holdings Limited (the issued shares of which are listed on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange, stock code: 2213) beneficially owned by the Borrower.

Details of the Loan are set out in the announcements of the Company dated 14 February 2018, 13 February 2019, 16 October 2019 and 28 August 2020.

On 16 October 2020, the Lender initiated civil litigation (the "Litigation") in the PRC against (1) Mr. Chen Da Ren (陳 達仁); (2) Zhaoqing Jiazhou New City Real Estate Industry Development Company Limited* (肇慶市加洲新城房地產 實業開發有限公司) ("Zhaoqing Jiazhou"); and (3) Jiangmen Jinhui Century Plaza Property Management Company Limited* (江門市金滙世紀廣場物業管理有限公司) ("Jiangmen Jinhui") to recover the Loan advanced to the Borrower together with the relevant interest. Each of Mr. Chen Da Ren, Zhaoqing Jiazhou and Jiangmen Jinhui is a guarantor of the Loan.

On 19 October 2020, the Litigation was accepted by the Intermediate People's Court of Jiangmen City, Guangdong Province* (廣東省江門市中級人民法院).

As at the date of this report, the Litigation has not yet proceeded to trial. The Company will make further announcements in due course to inform the Shareholders and potential investors of the Company of any further significant development in the Litigation and the recovery of the Loan.

As at 31 December 2020, the Company had made full impairment provision in respect of the Loan.

To the shareholders of Southwest Securities International Securities Limited (Incorporated in Bermuda with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Southwest Securities International Securities Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (the "Group") set out on pages 62 to 135, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2020, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2020, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSAs") issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the "Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context.

We have fulfilled the responsibilities described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report, including in relation to these matters. Accordingly, our audit included the performance of procedures designed to respond to our assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements. The results of our audit procedures, including the procedures performed to address the matters below, provide the basis for our audit opinion on the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Key audit matter

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

Impairment assessment on accounts receivable arising from securities margin clients

As at 31 December 2020, gross accounts receivable arising from securities margin clients and its related expected credit losses ("ECL") allowance amounted to HK$624.1 million and HK$536.4 million respectively.

The assessment of ECL for accounts receivable arising from securities margin clients involves significant management judgement and estimates in the identification of significant increase in credit risk the use of models and the choice of inputs and assumptions in the calculation of ECL at the reporting date, such as probability of default, loss given default, exposure at default, amongst others.

At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk for exposures. The Group considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort for this purpose. This includes quantitative and qualitative information and also includes the development of forward-looking analysis.

Relevant disclosures are included in Note 33 to the consolidated financial statements.

Our procedures in respect of ECL allowance for accounts receivable arising from securities margin clients included the following:

- We obtained an understanding of the Group's credit risk management practices and assessed the Group's credit provisioning policy.
- We tested the appropriateness of the Group's determination of significant increase in credit risk and the basis for classification of exposures into the three stages. Our testing included checking to margin loan overdue information, loan-to-value percentage and other related information.
- For securities margin clients classified as stage 1 and stage 2, we evaluated management's judgment and assumptions, and checked key parameters to external data sources, where available, such as default rates published by credit rating agencies. We recalculated the ECL amounts based on the above parameters and analyzed the sensitivity of the ECL amounts to changes in modelling assumptions, including the forward-looking probability weighted economic scenarios.
 - For securities margin clients classified at stage 3, we assessed the loss allowance with reference to the fair value of the collateral and other sources of cash flows, and developed a reasonable range of expected cash shortfall for comparison with the Group's estimate of ECL.
 - We evaluated the Group's disclosures in relation to credit risk in Note 33 to the consolidated financial statements.

Revenue recognition of corporate finance services relating to IPO sponsor fee income

For the year ended 31 December 2020, IPO sponsor fee Our procedures to assess the recognition of revenue of income of HK$12 million was recognized by the Group. IPO sponsor fee income included the following:

The recognition of IPO sponsor fee income involves significant management judgement and estimates with respect to: (i) the identification of the performance obligation; (ii) the establishment of the timing of satisfaction of that performance obligation; and (iii) the determination of an appropriate method to measure the progress towards the completion of that performance obligation.

As IPO sponsor services are usually highly interdependent and interrelated, the Group treats all IPO sponsor services promised in the contract as a single performance obligation.

In determining the timing of satisfaction of the performance obligation, the Group examines its services on a contract by contract basis and considers if it has a right to payment at an amount that reasonably compensates it for its performance completed to date at all times throughout the contract.

All IPO sponsor fee income is recognised over time, the Group measures the progress using the output method and estimates the percentage of completion by key tasks performed to date.

- We obtained an understanding of the Group's methodology for revenue recognition, including an evaluation of management judgements in respect of the determination of the amount and timing of recognition of revenue from contracts with customers.
- We inspected IPO sponsor contracts, on a sample basis, to assess whether the performance obligation was properly identified and whether the appropriate method (i.e. over time versus at a point in time) for recognising revenue upon the satisfaction of the performance obligation was used.
- For the measurement of project progress and the recognition of the related revenue over time, we obtained the project status reports, on a sample basis, and checked to the supporting evidence, such as project minutes and correspondence with The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited. We also assessed whether it was probable that the Group would collect the consideration to which it was entitled in exchange for transferring the promised services to its customers.
- We have assessed the recoverability of the IPO sponsor fee income by comparing the past recognition to the actual realisation of income.
- We evaluated the Group's disclosures in respect of revenue recognition in Note 3 to the consolidated financial statements.

OTHER INFORMATION INCLUDED IN THE ANNUAL REPORT

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report, other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE DIRECTORS FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors of the Company are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors of the Company either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors of the Company are assisted by the Audit Committee in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Our report is made solely to you, as a body, in accordance with section 90 of the Bermuda Companies Act 1981, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Tso Miu Yue, Agnes.

CORPORATE INFORMATION

Southwest Securities International Securities Limited (the "Company") is a company incorporated in Bermuda with limited liability and its shares are listed on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange"). The immediate holding company of the Company is Southwest Securities International Investment Limited ("SSII"), a company incorporated in Hong Kong with limited liability and wholly-owned by Southwest Securities Co., Ltd. ("SWSC"). SWSC is the ultimate holding company of the Company, which is incorporated in the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") with limited liability and its shares are listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange.

The principal activities of the Company and its subsidiary (the "Group") comprise:

- broking index, commodity and currency futures, options and securities, unit trusts, investment-linked and insurance products for its clients;
- provision of margin financing, underwriting and placements, corporate finance advisory services and asset management services; and
- trading in securities, equity index, commodity and currency futures contracts for its own account.

1. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparation

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with all applicable Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs"), which collective term includes all applicable Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards, Hong Kong Accounting Standards ("HKASs") and Interpretations issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA"), and accounting principles generally accepted in Hong Kong. These consolidated financial statements also comply with the applicable disclosure provisions of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Listing Rules") and the Companies Ordinance (Chapter 622 of the Laws of Hong Kong).

The measurement basis used in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements is the historical cost basis except for financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income and financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, and derivative financial liabilities, which are measured at fair value as explained in the accounting policies set out below.

The consolidated financial statements are presented in the currency of Hong Kong dollars, which is also the Company's functional currency.

All amounts have been rounded to the nearest thousand, unless otherwise indicated.

Certain comparative figures have been reclassified to conform with the current year presentation.

Basic of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2020. A subsidiary is an entity (including a structured entity), directly or indirectly, controlled by the Company. Control is achieved when the Group is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee (i.e., existing rights that give the Group the current ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee).

When the Company has, directly or indirectly, less than a majority of the voting or similar rights of an investee, the Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether it has power over an investee, including:

- (a) the contractual arrangement with the other vote holders of the investee;
- (b) rights arising from other contractual arrangements; and
- (c) the Group's voting rights and potential voting rights.

The financial statements of the subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting period as the Company, using consistent accounting policies. The results of subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which the Group obtains control, and continue to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases.

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the parent of the Group and to the non-controlling interests, even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance. All intra-group assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control described above. A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction.

If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it derecognises (i) the assets (including goodwill) and liabilities of the subsidiary, (ii) the carrying amount of any non-controlling interest and (iii) the cumulative translation differences recorded in equity; and recognises (i) the fair value of the consideration received, (ii) the fair value of any investment retained and (iii) any resulting surplus or deficit in profit or loss. The Group's share of components previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified to profit or loss or retained profits, as appropriate, on the same basis as would be required if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities.

Changes in accounting policies and disclosures

The Group has adopted the Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting 2018 and the following revised HKFRSs for the first time for the current year's financial statements.

Amendments to HKFRS 3	Definition of a Business
Amendments to HKFRS 9, HKAS 39 and HKFRS 7	Interest Rate Benchmark Reform
Amendments to HKAS 1 and HKAS 8	Definition of Material

Except for the amendments to HKFRS 9, HKAS 39 and HKFRS 7, which are not relevant to the preparation of the Group's financial statements, the nature and the impact of the Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting 2018 and the revised HKFRSs are described below:

- (a) Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting 2018 (the "Conceptual Framework") sets out a comprehensive set of concepts for financial reporting and standard setting, and provides guidance for preparers of financial statements in developing consistent accounting policies and assistance to all parties to understand and interpret the standards. The Conceptual Framework includes new chapters on measurement and reporting financial performance, new guidance on the derecognition of assets and liabilities, and updated definitions and recognition criteria for assets and liabilities. It also clarifies the roles of stewardship, prudence and measurement uncertainty in financial reporting. The Conceptual Framework is not a standard, and none of the concepts contained therein override the concepts or requirements in any standard. The Conceptual Framework did not have any significant impact on the financial position and performance of the Group.
- (b) Amendments to HKFRS 3 clarify and provide additional guidance on the definition of a business. The amendments clarify that for an integrated set of activities and assets to be considered a business, it must include, at a minimum, an input and a substantive process that together significantly contribute to the ability to create output. A business can exist without including all of the inputs and processes needed to create outputs. The amendments remove the assessment of whether market participants are capable of acquiring the business and continue to produce outputs. Instead, the focus is on whether acquired inputs and acquired substantive processes together significantly contribute to the ability to create outputs. The amendments have also narrowed the definition of outputs to focus on goods or services provided to customers, investment income or other income from ordinary activities. Furthermore, the amendments provide guidance to assess whether an acquired process is substantive and introduce an optional fair value concentration test to permit a simplified assessment of whether an acquired set of activities and assets is not a business. The Group has applied the amendments prospectively to transactions or other events that occurred on or after 1 January 2020. The amendments did not have any impact on the financial position and performance of the Group.
- (c) Amendments to HKAS 1 and HKAS 8 provide a new definition of material. The new definition states that information is material if omitting, misstating or obscuring it could reasonably be expected to influence decisions that the primary users of general purpose financial statements make on the basis of those financial statements. The amendments clarify that materiality will depend on the nature or magnitude of information, or both. The amendments did not have any significant impact on the financial position and performance of the Group.

Issued but not yet effective Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards

The Group has not applied the following new and revised HKFRSs, that have been issued but are not yet effective, in these financial statements.

Amendments to HKFRS 3	Reference to the Conceptual Framework ²
Amendments to HKFRS 9, HKAS 39,	Interest Rate Benchmark Reform — Phase 21
HKFRS 7, HKFRS 4 and HKFRS 16

HKAS 28 (2011)	its Associate or Joint Venture ⁴
HKFRS 17	Insurance Contracts ³
Amendments to HKFRS 17	Insurance Contracts ^{3, 6}
Amendments to HKAS 1	Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current ^{3, 5}
Amendments to HKAS 16	Property, Plant and Equipment: Proceeds before Intended Use ²
Amendments to HKAS 37	Onerous Contracts — Cost of Fulfilling a Contract ²
Annual Improvements to HKFRSs	Amendments to HKFRS 1, HKFRS 9, Illustrative Examples
2018-2020	accompanying HKFRS 16, and HKAS 41 ²

- ¹ Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2021
- ² Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2022
- ³ Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2023
- ⁴ No mandatory effective date yet determined but available for adoption
- ⁵ As a consequence of the amendments to HKAS 1, Hong Kong Interpretation 5 Presentation of Financial Statements Classification by the Borrower of a Term Loan that Contains a Repayment on Demand Clause was revised in October 2020 to align the corresponding wording with no change in conclusion
- ⁶ As a consequence of the amendments to HKFRS 17 issued in October 2020, HKFRS 4 was amended to extend the temporary exemption that permits insurers to apply HKAS 39 rather than HKFRS 9 for annual periods beginning before 1 January 2023

Further information about those HKFRSs that are expected to be applicable to the Group is described below.

Amendments to HKFRS 3 are intended to replace a reference to the previous Framework for the Preparation and Presentation of Financial Statements with a reference to the Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting issued in June 2018 without significantly changing its requirements. The amendments also add to HKFRS 3 an exception to its recognition principle for an entity to refer to the Conceptual Framework to determine what constitutes an asset or a liability. The exception specifies that, for liabilities and contingent liabilities that would be within the scope of HKAS 37 or HK(IFRIC)-Int 21 if they were incurred separately rather than assumed in a business combination, an entity applying HKFRS 3 should refer to HKAS 37 or HK(IFRIC)-Int 21 respectively instead of the Conceptual Framework. Furthermore, the amendments clarify that contingent assets do not qualify for recognition at the acquisition date. The Group expects to adopt the amendments prospectively from 1 January 2022. Since the amendments apply prospectively to business combinations for which the acquisition date is on or after the date of first application, the Group will not be affected by these amendments on the date of transition.

Issued but not yet effective Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (Continued)

Amendments to HKAS 1 clarify the requirements for classifying liabilities as current or non-current. The amendments specify that if an entity's right to defer settlement of a liability is subject to the entity complying with specified conditions, the entity has a right to defer settlement of the liability at the end of the reporting period if it complies with those conditions at that date. Classification of a liability is unaffected by the likelihood that the entity will exercise its right to defer settlement of the liability. The amendments also clarify the situations that are considered as a settlement of a liability. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2023 and shall be applied retrospectively. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Amendments to HKAS 16 prohibit an entity from deducting from the cost of an item of property, plant and equipment any proceeds from selling items produced while bringing that asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management. Instead, an entity recognises the proceeds from selling any such items, and the cost of those items, in profit or loss. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2022 and shall be applied retrospectively only to items of property, plant and equipment made available for use on or after the beginning of the earliest period presented in the financial statements in which the entity first applies the amendments. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Annual Improvements to HKFRSs 2018-2020 sets out amendments to HKFRS 1, HKFRS 9, Illustrative Examples accompanying HKFRS 16, and HKAS 41. Details of the amendments that are expected to be applicable to the Group are as follows:

- HKFRS 9 Financial Instruments: clarifies the fees that an entity includes when assessing whether the terms of a new or modified financial liability are substantially different from the terms of the original financial liability. These fees include only those paid or received between the borrower and the lender, including fees paid or received by either the borrower or lender on the other's behalf. An entity applies the amendment to financial liabilities that are modified or exchanged on or after the beginning of the annual reporting period in which the entity first applies the amendment. The amendment is effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2022. Earlier application is permitted. The amendment is not expected to have a significant impact on the Group's financial statements.
- HKFRS 16 Leases: removes the illustration of payments from the lessor relating to leasehold improvements in Illustrative Example 13 accompanying HKFRS 16. This removes potential confusion regarding the treatment of lease incentives when applying HKFRS 16.

Summary of significant accounting policies

Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Group. The Group controls an entity when it is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. The Group reassesses whether it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the elements of control.

In the Company's statement of financial position which is presented within these notes, the investments in subsidiaries are stated at cost less impairment losses. The carrying amounts of the investments in subsidiaries are reduced to their recoverable amount on an individual basis, if it is higher than the recoverable amount. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividends received and receivable.

Fixed assets

Fixed assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses. The cost of an item of fixed assets comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use. Repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss during the year in which they are incurred.

Depreciation is provided to write off the cost less accumulated impairment losses of fixed assets over their estimated useful lives as set out below from the date on which they are available for use and after taking into account their estimated residual values, using the straight-line method. Where parts of an item of fixed assets have different useful lives, the cost of the item is allocated on a reasonable basis and depreciated separately:

Leasehold improvements	Over the unexpired term of lease
Furniture and fixtures	5 years
Office equipment	5 years
Computer equipment	3 years
Motor vehicle	5 years

Gains or losses arising from the retirement or disposal of an item of fixed assets are determined as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the item and are recognised in profit or loss on the date of retirement or disposal.

Fair value measurement

The Group measures its financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income, and financial assets at fair value through profit or loss at fair value at the end of each reporting period. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either in the principal market for the asset or liability. The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Group. The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorised within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

- Level 1 based on quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
- Level 2 based on valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is observable, either directly or indirectly
- Level 3 based on valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable

For assets and liabilities that are recognised in the financial statements on a recurring basis, the Group determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by reassessing categorisation (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

Leases

The Group assesses at contract inception whether a contract is, or contains, a lease. If the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration, it is classified as a lease.

Group as a lessee

The Group applies a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases, except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets. The Group recognises lease liabilities to make lease payments and right-of-use assets representing the right to use the underlying assets.

(i) Right-of-use assets

Right-of-use assets are recognised at the commencement date of the lease (that is the date the underlying asset is available for use). Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The cost of right-of-use assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognised, initial direct costs incurred, and lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received. The cost of a right-of-use asset also includes an estimate of costs to dismantle and remove the underlying asset or to restore the underlying asset or the site on which it is located. Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis as follows:

Properties Over the lease term

1. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Leases (Continued)

(ii) Lease liabilities

At the commencement date of the lease, the Group recognises lease liabilities measured at the present value of lease payments to be made over the lease term. The lease payments include fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, and amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees. The lease payments also include the exercise price of a purchase option reasonably certain to be exercised by the Group and payments of penalties for termination of a lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising the option to terminate. The variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as an expense in the period in which the event or condition that triggers the payment occurs.

In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses its incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date because the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is remeasured if there is a modification, i.e. a change in the lease term, a change in lease payments (e.g., a change to future lease payments resulting from a change in an index or rate) or a change in assessment of an option to purchase the underlying asset.

(iii) Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to its short-term leases (i.e. those leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option). It also applies the leases of low-value assets recognition exemption to leases of office equipment that are considered to be of low value. Lease payments on short-term leases and leases of low-value assets are recognised as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Financial assets

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, as subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income, or fair value through profit or loss.

The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and the Group's business model for managing them. With the exception of trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient of not adjusting the effect of a significant financing component, the Group initially measures a financial asset at its fair value, plus in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs. Trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient are measured at the transaction price determined under HKFRS 15 in accordance with the policies set out for "Revenue recognition" below.

In order for a financial asset to be classified and measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income, it needs to give rise to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest ("SPPI") on the principal amount outstanding.

The Group's business model for managing financial assets refers to how it manages its financial assets in order to generate cash flows. The business model determines whether cash flows will result from collecting contractual cash flows, selling the financial assets, or both.

All regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on the trade date, that is, the date that the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the period generally established by regulation or convention in the marketplace.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial assets depends on their classification as follows:

Financial assets at amortised cost (debt instruments)

The Group measures financial assets at amortised cost if both of the following conditions are met:

- The financial asset is held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows.
- The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Financial assets at amortised cost are subsequently measured using the effective interest method and are subject to impairment. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the asset is derecognised, modified or impaired.

Financial assets designated at fair value through other comprehensive income (equity investments)

Upon initial recognition, the Group can elect to classify irrevocably its equity investments as equity investments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income when they meet the definition of equity under HKAS 32 Financial Instruments: Presentation and are not held for trading. The classification is determined on an instrument-by-instrument basis.

Gains and losses on these financial assets are never recycled to profit or loss. Dividends are recognised as other income in profit or loss when the right of payment has been established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the Group and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably, except when the Group benefits from such proceeds as a recovery of part of the cost of the financial asset, in which case, such gains are recorded as investment revaluation reserve in other comprehensive income. Equity investments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income are not subject to impairment assessment.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss include financial assets held for trading, financial assets designated upon initial recognition at fair value through profit or loss, or financial assets mandatorily required to be measured at fair value. Financial assets are classified as held for trading if they are acquired for the purpose of selling or repurchasing in the near term. Derivatives, including separated embedded derivatives, are also classified as held for trading unless they are designated as effective hedging instruments. Financial assets with cash flows that are not solely payments of principal and interest are classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss, irrespective of the business model. Notwithstanding the criteria for debt instruments to be classified at amortised cost, as described above, debt instruments may be designated at fair value through profit or loss on initial recognition if doing so eliminates, or significantly reduces, an accounting mismatch.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are carried in the statement of financial position at fair value with net changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss.

This category includes derivative instruments and equity investments which the Group had not irrevocably elected to classify at fair value through other comprehensive income. Dividends on equity investments classified as financial assets at fair value profit or loss are also recognised as other income in profit or loss when the right of payment has been established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the Group and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

Net assets attributable to holders of non-controlling interests in consolidated investment fund

A financial instrument that gives the holder the right to put it back to the issuer for cash or another financial asset (a 'puttable instrument') is a financial liability. The financial instrument is a financial liability even when the amount of cash or other financial assets is determined on the basis of an index or other item that has the potential to increase or decrease. The existence of an option for the holder to put the instrument back to the issuer for cash or another financial asset means that the puttable instrument meets the definition of a financial liability.

Net assets attributable to holders of non-controlling interests in consolidated investment fund are determined based on the attributable shares of the residual assets of the consolidated investment fund after deducting the consolidated investment fund's other liabilities.

Impairment of financial assets

The Group recognises an allowance for ECLs for all debt instruments not held at fair value through profit or loss. ECLs are based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at an approximation of the original effective interest rate. The expected cash flows will include cash flows from the sale of collateral held or other credit enhancements that are integral to the contractual terms. The measurement of ECL is a function of the probability of default, loss given default (i.e. the magnitude of the loss if there is a default) and the exposure at default. The assessment of the probability of default and loss given default is based on historical data adjusted by forward-looking information. Estimation of ECL reflects an unbiased and probability-weighted amount that is determined with the respective risks of default occurring as the weights.

General approach

ECLs are recognised in two stages. For credit exposures for which there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, ECLs are provided for credit losses that result from default events that are possible within the next 12 months (a 12-month ECL). For those credit exposures for which there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, a loss allowance is required for credit losses expected over the remaining life of the exposure, irrespective of the timing of the default (a lifetime ECL).

At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether the credit risk on a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition. When making the assessment, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the cognition and considers reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort, including historical and forward-looking information.

In particular, the following information is taken into account when assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly:

- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the financial instrument's external (if available) or internal credit rating;
- existing or forecast adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations;
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the operating results of the debtor;
- an actual or expected significant adverse change in the regulatory, economic, or technological environment of the debtor that results in a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations.

The Group regularly monitors the effectiveness of the criteria used to identify whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk and revises them as appropriate to ensure that the criteria are capable of identifying significant increase in credit risk before the amount becomes past due.

The Group considers a financial asset in default when contractual payments are 90 days past due. However, in certain cases, the Group may also consider a financial asset to be in default when internal or external information indicates that the Group is unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by the Group. A financial asset is written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovering the contractual cash flows.

Credit-impaired financial assets

A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of that financial asset have occurred. Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired includes observable data about the following events:

- (a) significant financial difficulty of the issuer or the borrower;
- (b) a breach of contract, such as a default or past due event;
- (c) the lender(s) of the borrower, for economic or contractual reasons relating to the borrower's financial difficulty, having granted to the borrower a concession(s) that the lender(s) would not otherwise consider; or
- (d) it is becoming probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation.

Financial assets at amortised cost are subject to impairment under the general approach and they are classified within the following stages for measurement of ECLs except for trade receivables and contract assets which apply the simplified approach as detailed below.

- Stage 1 Financial instruments for which credit risk has not increased significantly since initial recognition and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to 12-month ECLs
- Stage 2 Financial instruments for which credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition but that are not credit-impaired financial assets and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs
- Stage 3 Financial assets that are credit-impaired at the reporting date (but that are not purchased or originated credit-impaired) and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs

Simplified approach

For trade receivables and contract assets that do not contain a significant financing component or when the Group applies the practical expedient of not adjusting the effect of a significant financing component, the Group applies the simplified approach in calculating ECLs. Under the simplified approach, the Group does not track changes in credit risk, but instead recognises a loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date. The Group has applied probability of default based on that of comparable companies, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

Write-off policy

The Group writes off a financial asset when there is information indicating that the counterparty is in severe financial difficulty and there is no realistic prospect of recovery, for example, when the counterparty has been placed under liquidation or has entered into bankruptcy proceedings. Financial assets written off may still be subject to enforcement activities under the Group's recovery procedures, taking into account legal advice where appropriate. A write-off constitutes a derecognition event. Any subsequent recoveries are recognised in profit or loss.

Modification

Where the original contractual terms of a financial asset have been modified for credit reasons and the instrument has not been derecognised (an instrument is derecognised when a modification results in a change in cash flows that the Group would consider substantial), the resulting modification loss is recognised in profit or loss with a corresponding decrease in the gross carrying value of the asset.

Expected credit loss for modified financial assets that have not been derecognised and are not considered to be credit-impaired will be recognised on a 12-month basis, or a lifetime basis, if there is a significant increase in credit risk. These assets are assessed to determine whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk subsequent to the modification. In addition to the recognition of modification gains and losses, the revised carrying value of modified financial assets will impact the calculation of expected credit losses, with any increase or decrease in expected credit loss recognised.

Derecognition of financial assets

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognised (i.e., removed from the Group's consolidated statement of financial position) when:

- the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired; or
- the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a "pass-through"
 arrangement; and either (a) the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset,
 but has transferred control of the asset.

When the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a passthrough arrangement, it evaluates if, and to what extent, it has retained the risk and rewards of ownership of the asset. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset nor transferred control of the asset, the Group continues to recognise the transferred asset to the extent of the Group's continuing involvement. In that case, the Group also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Group has retained.

Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration that the Group could be required to repay.

Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, loans and borrowings, payables, or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate.

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

The Group's financial liabilities include bonds payable, derivative financial liabilities, net assets attributable to holders of non-controlling interests in consolidated investment fund, accounts payable and other payables.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification as follows:

Loans and borrowings

After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest rate method unless the effect of discounting would be immaterial, in which case they are stated at cost. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the effective interest rate amortisation process.

Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the effective interest rate. The effective interest rate amortisation is included in finance costs in profit or loss.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled, or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a derecognition of the original liability and a recognition of a new liability, and the difference between the respective carrying amounts is recognised in profit or loss.

Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the consolidated statement of financial position if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Trust accounts

Trust accounts maintained by the Group to hold clients' monies are treated as off-statement of financial position items and offset against accounts payable.

In the course of the conduct of the regulated activities of ordinary business, subsidiaries which are licensed corporations, act as trustees that result in the holding of clients' monies on behalf of clients and other institutions. These assets are not assets of the Group and, therefore, are not included in its consolidated statement of financial position, and the corresponding amounts classified under accounts payable are treated as items not recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position.

Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and demand deposits, and short term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash, are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, and have a short maturity of generally within three months when acquired, less bank overdrafts which are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the Group's cash management.

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of financial position, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and at banks, including term deposits, and assets similar in nature to cash, which are not restricted to use.

Revenue recognition

Revenue from contracts with customers

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognised when control of goods or services is transferred to the customers at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services.

When the consideration in a contract includes a variable amount, the amount of consideration is estimated to which the Group will be entitled in exchange for transferring the goods or services to the customer. The variable consideration is estimated at contract inception and constrained until it is highly probable that a significant revenue reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur when the associated uncertainty with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved.

When the contract contains a financing component which provides the customer a significant benefit of financing the transfer of goods or services to the customer for more than one year, revenue is measured at the present value of the amount receivable, discounted using the discount rate that would be reflected in a separate financing transaction between the Group and the customer at contract inception. When the contract contains a financing component which provides the Group a significant financial benefit for more than one year, revenue recognised under the contract includes the interest expense accreted on the contract liability under the effective interest method. For a contract where the period between the payment by the customer and the transfer of the promised goods or services is one year or less, the transaction price is not adjusted for the effects of a significant financing component, using the practical expedient in HKFRS 15.

Provision of securities, futures and options brokerage services

The performance obligation is satisfied at a point in time when the customer has received the service from the Group. Commission income on securities and futures dealing and broking is generally due within one to three days after trade date.

Provision of underwriting and placing services

The performance obligation is satisfied at a point in time when the customer has received the service from the Group. Commission income from underwriting and placing is recognised when the underlying securities are being written or placed.

Provision of IPO sponsor services

As IPO sponsor services are usually highly interdependent and interrelated, the Group treats all IPO sponsor services promised in the contract as a single performance obligation. In determining the timing of satisfaction of the performance obligation, the Group examines its services on a contract by contract basis and considers if it has a right to payment at an amount that reasonably compensates it for its performance completed to date at all times throughout the contract.

For IPO sponsor fee income being recognised overtime, the Group measures the progress using the output method and estimates the percentage of completion by key tasks performed to date.

For IPO sponsor fee income not being recognised overtime, the fee will only be recognised when the single performance obligation is completed.

IPO sponsor fee is generally due within 30 to 90 days upon reaching the contracts' milestone payment terms.

Provision of consultancy and financial advisory services

The performance obligations for certain consultancy and financial advisory services are fulfilled when all the relevant duties of an advisor as stated in the contract are completed. Consultancy and financial advisory fee is generally due within 30 to 90 days upon reaching contracts' milestone payment terms.

Certain consultancy and financial advisory services' performance obligations are satisfied over time as services are rendered if the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the Group. These services are charged at agreed fee billed on a mutually basis (e.g. regular period).

Provision of asset management services

Revenue from asset management services is recognised over time as the services are provided. Fees for asset management services are calculated based on a fixed percentage of the value of assets managed and due on a regular basis as mutually agreed.

Provision of insurance brokerage service

The performance obligation relating to the insurance brokerage service is satisfied at the point when the terms of the insurance policy have been agreed contractually by the insurer and policyholder, and the insurer has a present right to payment from the policyholder. Insurance brokerage fees are generally due within 30 to 90 days upon the commencement of the policy.

Corporate finance arrangement and commitment services

The performance obligation is satisfied at a point in time when the customer has received the service from the Group. Corporate finance arrangement and commitment is generally due when the service period is completed.

Revenue from other sources

Interest income is recognised on an accrual basis using the effective interest method by applying the rate that exactly discounts the estimated future cash receipts over the expected life of the financial instrument or a shorter period, when appropriate, to the net carrying amount of the financial asset.

Dividend income is recognised when the shareholders' right to receive payment has been established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the Group and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

Contract liabilities

A contract liability is recognised when a payment is received or a payment is due (whichever is earlier) from a customer before the Group transfers the related goods or services. Contract liabilities are recognised as revenue when the Group performs under the contract (i.e., transfers control of the related goods or services to the customer).

Foreign currencies

These financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollars, which is the Company's functional currency. Each entity in the Group determines its own functional currency and items included in the financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency. Foreign currency transactions recorded by the entities in the Group are initially recorded using their respective functional currency rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the functional currency rates of exchange ruling at the end of the reporting period. Differences arising on settlement or translation of monetary items are recognised in profit or loss.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was measured. The gain or loss arising on translation of a non-monetary item measured at fair value is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on change in fair value of the item (i.e., translation difference on the item whose fair value gain or loss is recognised in other comprehensive income or profit or loss is also recognised in other comprehensive income or profit or loss is also recognised in other comprehensive).

In determining the exchange rate on initial recognition of the related asset, expense or income on the derecognition of a non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability relating to an advance consideration, the date of initial transaction is the date on which the Group initially recognises the non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability arising from the advance consideration. If there are multiple payments or receipts in advance, the Group determines the transaction date for each payment or receipt of the advance consideration.

The functional currencies of certain overseas subsidiaries are currencies other than the Hong Kong dollar. As at the end of the reporting period, the assets and liabilities of these entities are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the exchange rates prevailing at the end of the reporting period and their profit or loss are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the weighted average exchange rates for the year.

The resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the foreign exchange reserve. On disposal of a foreign operation, the component of other comprehensive income relating to that particular foreign operation is recognised in profit or loss.

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows, the cash flows of overseas subsidiaries are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the exchange rates ruling at the dates of the cash flows. Frequently recurring cash flows of overseas subsidiaries which arise throughout the year are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the weighted average exchange rates for the year.

Impairment of non-financial assets

Where an indication of impairment exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required (other than inventories, construction contract assets, financial assets, investment properties and non-current assets/a disposal group classified as held for sale), the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of the asset's or cash-generating unit's value in use and its fair value less costs of disposal, and is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets, in which case the recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

An impairment loss is recognised only if the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. An impairment loss is charged to profit or loss in the period in which it arises in those expense categories consistent with the function of the impaired asset.

An assessment is made at the end of each reporting period as to whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such an indication exists, the recoverable amount is estimated. A previously recognised impairment loss of an asset other than goodwill is reversed only if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount of that asset, but not to an amount higher than the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any depreciation/amortisation) had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. A reversal of such an impairment loss is credited to profit or loss in the period in which it arises.

Employee benefits

Short term employee benefits

Salaries, bonuses, paid annual leave, contributions to defined contribution retirement plans and the cost of non-monetary benefits are accrued in the period in which the associated services are rendered by employees.

Defined contribution plans

The obligations for contributions to defined contribution retirement scheme are recognised as an expense in profit or loss as incurred and are reduced by contributions forfeited by those employees who leave the scheme prior the contributions are vested fully in those employees. The assets of the scheme are held separately from those of the Group in an independently administered fund.

Long service payments

The Group's net obligation in respect of long service payments under the Employment Ordinance is the amounts of future benefit that employees have earned in return for their services in the current and prior periods. The obligation is calculated using the projected unit credit method and discounted to its present value and after deducting the fair value of any related assets, including those retirement scheme benefits.

Provisions

A provision is recognised when a present obligation (legal or constructive) has arisen as a result of a past event and it is probable that a future outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, provided that a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

When the effect of discounting is material, the amount recognised for a provision is the present value at the end of the reporting period of the future expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation. The increase in the discounted present value amount arising from the passage of time is included in finance costs in profit or loss.

Income tax

Income tax comprises current and deferred tax. Income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss, either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period, taking into consideration interpretations and practices prevailing in the countries in which the Group operates.

Deferred tax is provided, using the liability method, on all temporary differences at the end of the reporting period between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- when the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- in respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures, when the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, the carryforward of unused tax credits and any unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, the carryforward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised, except:

- when the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary differences arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- in respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures, deferred tax assets are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at the end of each reporting period and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if and only if the Group has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets and current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the same taxable entity or different taxable entities which intend either to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered.

Related parties

A party is considered to be related to the Group if:

- (a) the party is a person or a close member of that person's family and that person
 - (i) has control or joint control over the Group;
 - (ii) has significant influence over the Group; or
 - (iii) is a member of the key management personnel of the Group or of a parent of the Group;

or

- (b) the party is an entity where any of the following conditions applies:
 - (i) the entity and the Group are members of the same group;
 - (ii) one entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or of a parent, subsidiary or fellow subsidiary of the other entity);
 - (iii) the entity and the Group are joint ventures of the same third party;
 - (iv) one entity is a joint venture of a third entity and the other entity is an associate of the third entity;
 - (v) the entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the Group or an entity related to the Group;
 - (vi) the entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in (a);
 - (vii) a person identified in (a)(i) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity); and
 - (viii) the entity, or any member of a group of which it is a part, provides key management personnel services to the Group or to the parent of the Group.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGMENTS AND ESTIMATES

The preparation of the Group's financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and their accompanying disclosures, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that could require a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of the assets or liabilities affected in the future.

Judgements

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgements, apart from those involving estimations, which have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements:

Revenue from contracts with customers

The Group applied the following judgements that significantly affect the determination of the amount and timing of recognition of revenue from contracts with customers:

(i) Identification of the performance obligations, recognition of revenue over time versus at a point in time, and choosing an appropriate method of measuring progress of IPO sponsor service

As IPO sponsor services are usually highly interdependent and interrelated, the Group treats all IPO sponsor services promised in the contract as a single performance obligation.

In determining the timing of satisfaction of the performance obligation, the Group examines its services on a contract by contract basis and considers if it has a right to payment at an amount that reasonably compensates it for its performance completed to date at all times throughout the contract.

For IPO sponsor fee income being recognised overtime, the Group measures the progress using the output method and estimates the percentage of completion by key tasks performed to date.

For IPO sponsor fee income not being recognised overtime, the fee will only be recognised when the single performance obligation is completed.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGMENTS AND ESTIMATES (Continued) Estimation uncertainty

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are described below.

(1) Provision for ECL allowance of accounts receivable from securities margin clients

The Group calculates ECL allowance for accounts receivable from securities margin clients based on the estimated probability of default of counterparties with similar credit ratings, with adjustment to reflect the current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions, as appropriate.

At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether the credit risk on a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition. When making the assessment, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition and considers reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort, including historical and forward-looking information.

The Group considers a financial asset is in default when contractual payments are 90 days past due. However, in certain cases, the Group may also consider a financial asset to be in default when internal or external information indicates that the Group is unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by the Group.

(2) Deferred tax assets

Deferred tax assets are recognised for unused tax losses to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the losses can be utilised. Significant management judgement is required to determine the amount of deferred tax assets that can be recognised, based upon the likely timing and level of future taxable profits together with future tax planning strategies. There were no deferred tax assets relating to recognised tax losses at 31 December 2020 (2019: nil). The amount of unrecognised tax losses is disclosed in note 24 to the consolidated financial statements.

4. SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Directors have been identified as the chief operating decision makers to evaluate the performance of operating segments based on the Group's internal reporting in respect of these segments. For the purposes of resource allocation and assessment of segment performance, the Directors monitor the results attributable to each reportable segment on the following basis:

- Segment revenue represents revenue generated from external customers; and
- Segment results represent the profit or loss incurred by each segment without allocation of central administration costs, depreciation, central finance costs, and income tax expense.

Segment assets and liabilities are not disclosed as they are not considered to be crucial for resources allocation and thereafter not being regularly provided to the Directors.

Reportable operating segments

The Directors consider brokerage and margin financing, corporate finance, asset management and proprietary trading are the Group's major operating segments. The principal activities of these operating segments are as follows:

Brokerage and margin financing	Provision of brokerage services in securities, futures and options and insurance products; provision of margin financing services
Corporate finance	Provision of underwriting and placements and corporate finance advisory services
Asset management	Provision of asset management services
Proprietary trading	Proprietary trading in securities, futures and options, fund investments

Geographical segments

The geographical location of customers is based on the location at which the services were provided. During the years ended 31 December 2020 and 31 December 2019, the Group's revenue is mainly derived from customers in Hong Kong.

The geographical location of the non-current assets, other than financial instruments ("specified non-current assets"), is based on the physical location of the assets. The principal specified non-current assets of the Group were also located in Hong Kong. Accordingly, no analysis by geographical segment was provided.

Major customers

During the years ended 31 December 2020 and 31 December 2019, the following respective external customers contributed more than 10% of total revenue of the Group. For major customers' consideration, the total revenue of the Group excludes the net gains from proprietary trading.

16. ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE (Continued)

(i) (Continued)

Accounts receivable from securities margin clients are secured by their pledged securities, repayable on demand and bear interests at commercial rates. Credits are extended to securities margin clients subject to the marginable value of the listed securities pledged with the Group. The margin ratios are reviewed and determined periodically. At the end of the reporting period, fair value of marketable securities pledged by securities margin clients was HK$263,218,000 (2019: HK$1,098,632,000).

No ageing analysis is disclosed as in the opinion of the Directors, the ageing analysis does not give additional value in view of the nature of broking business.

(ii) Accounts receivable from securities margin clients of the Group are internally classified into the following categories:

Excellent	: Margin obligations are expected to be met and exposures are fully secured by collaterals, which demonstrate good loan-to-collaterals' value ratios ("LTVs"). Repayment of interest and principal is not in doubt.
Good	: Margin obligations are expected to be met and exposures are fully secured by collaterals, but LTVs are higher than the excellent grade exposures. Repayment of interest and principal is not in doubt.
Non-performing	: Exposures where some losses of principal or interest may be possible after taking into account of the realisable value of the underlying collaterals.
Individually impaired	: Exposures where default events have occurred and individual impairment assessments are made to determine the impairment allowances.

The following is the analysis of the gross carrying amount of the accounts receivable from securities margin clients as at 31 December 2020 and 2019 by the Group's internal credit rating and year end classification:

2020

Notes:

Settlement terms

- (i) The settlement terms of accounts payable arising from the ordinary course of business of broking in securities in respect of cash clients, margin clients, clearing house and brokers are one to three trading days after the transaction date.
- (ii) Accounts payable arising from the ordinary course of business broking in index, commodity and currency futures contracts represent the margin deposits received from clients for their trading in futures contracts. The excess over the required margin deposits stipulated are repayable to clients on demand.
- (iii) Accounts payable arising from the provision of insurance broking services are payable within 30 days.

No ageing analysis is disclosed in respect of accounts payable. In the opinion of the Directors, an ageing analysis does not give additional value in view of the nature of broking business.

Interest with reference to savings rate of financial institutions is payable to accounts payable arising from the ordinary course of business of securities broking subject to their balances maintained with the Group. All other categories of accounts payable are non-interest-bearing.

Both the tax losses and the deductible temporary differences do not expire under current tax legislation. Deferred tax assets have not been recognised in respect of these items because it is not probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the Group can utilise the benefits therefrom.

25. CONTRACT LIABILITIES

	2020 HK$'000	2019 HK$'000
Provision of IPO sponsor services	_	1,336

Contract liabilities, are expected to be settled within the Group's normal operating cycle, and accordingly are classified as current.

Revenue from provision of IPO sponsor services of HK$1,336,000 recognised in the current year relates to contract liabilities as of 1 January 2020.

As a sponsor, the Group normally receives fees by installments according to the completion of milestones as specified in the mandate. This will give rise to contract liabilities over the life of the contract, until the performance obligation is satisfied when the revenue will be recognised at that point in time or over time, by determining if it has a right to payment at an amount that reasonably compensates it for its performance completed to date at all times throughout the contract.

26. NET ASSETS ATTRIBUTABLE TO HOLDERS OF NON-CONTROLLING INTERESTS IN CONSOLIDATED INVESTMENT FUND

Net assets attributable to holders of non-controlling interests in consolidated investment fund, namely Southwest SPC Fund, are reflected as a liability since they can be put back to the Group for cash. The realisation of net assets attributable to holders of non-controlling interests in investment fund cannot be predicted with accuracy since these represent the interest of non-controlling shareholders in consolidated investment fund that are subject to the actions of the non-controlling investors. The summarised financial information below represents amounts before intragroup eliminations.

The theoretical ex-rights price calculated based on the closing price of HK$0.16 per shares as quoted on the Stock Exchange on the last trading day, i.e. 18 March 2019 was approximately HK$0.15 per share. The total consideration amounted to HK$159,900,000, of which HK$122,061,000 was credited to share capital and the balance of HK$34,839,000, after deducting the outgoing expenses of HK$3,000,000, was credited to the share premium account. The net price per rights share was approximately HK$0.13.

28. OTHER EQUITY INSTRUMENT

On 15 October 2019, the Company issued HK$580 million perpetual securities (the "Perpetual Securities") with an initial distribution rate of 3.875% per annum. Distributions are paid annually in arrears and the first distribution date was 14 October 2020. The Company may, at its sole discretion, elect to defer, in whole or in part, any distribution. The Perpetual Securities have no fixed redemption date and may be redeemed in whole or in part at any time at the sole discretion of the Company on giving prior notice to the holder of the Perpetual Securities, in accordance with the terms and conditions stated in the subscription agreement. The first reset date of distribution rate is 15 October 2022. The Perpetual Securities constitute direct, unconditional, subordinated and unsecured obligations of the Company and are classified as equity instruments and recorded as equity in the consolidated statement of financial position.

29. SHARE OPTION SCHEME

At the annual general meeting of the Company held on 12 November 2013, the shareholders of the Company approved the adoption of a new share option scheme (the "2013 Share Option Scheme") and the termination of the share option scheme which was adopted by the Company on 30 January 2004 (the "2004 Share Option Scheme"). The 2013 Share Option Scheme is valid and effective for 10 years from the date of adoption. Options granted under the 2004 Share Option Scheme prior to such termination will continue to be valid and exercisable in accordance with the rules of the 2004 Share Option Scheme.

During the years ended 31 December 2019 and 2020, there were no outstanding share option and no share option was granted, exercised, cancelled or lapsed under both the 2004 Share Option Scheme and the 2013 Share Option Scheme.

Details of the share option schemes are set out in the Directors' Report on page 51.

30. RETIREMENT BENEFIT SCHEMES

The Group operates a defined contribution retirement scheme (the "ORSO Scheme") and a mandatory provident fund scheme (the "MPF Scheme") which comply with all the respective requirements under the Occupational Retirement Schemes Ordinance and the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance.

Contributions to the ORSO Scheme depend on employees' service years, and range from five to seven per cent of their basic salaries.

Employees under the ORSO Scheme are entitled fully to the employer's contributions upon completion of ten service years, or at a reduced scale upon completion of three to nine service years. Forfeited contributions by the qualified employees who left the scheme prior to vesting fully in such contributions are used to reduce the Group's contributions.

Contributions to the MPF Scheme are calculated at five percent of the relevant income of each employee subject to a maximum amount of HK$1,500 per month. All statutory contributions under the MPF Scheme are immediately fully vested on the employees.

The aggregate employer's contributions, which have been dealt with in profit or loss for the year amounted to:

	2020 HK$'000	2019 HK$'000
Employer's contributions charged to profit or loss (Note 6(b))	1,428	1,782

31. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

33. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: interest-rate risk, credit risk, foreign exchange risk, liquidity risk and equity price risk. The Group's overall risk control focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance.

The Risk Control Committee ("RCC") is responsible for establishing and reviewing credit policies and procedures to minimise systematic and non-systematic credit and financial risks of the Group. The RCC is also responsible for assessing the risk of long term investments and proprietary trading.

Interest-rate risk

The Group's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Group's financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, certain accounts receivable from securities margin clients with floating interest rates, cash and bank balances and bonds payable. The Group manages its interest rate exposures by assessing the potential impact arising from any interest rate movements based on interest rate level and outlook. The management will review the proportion of borrowings in floating rates and ensure they are within reasonable range.

The Group's investments in debt securities being classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss and bonds payable bear fixed interest rates. Therefore, in the opinion of the directors, the interest rate risk arising from the debt securities and bonds payable are considered to be minimal.

As at 31 December 2020, if the interest rate on the bank balances is 50 basis points higher/lower, which was considered reasonably possible by management, with all other variables held constant, the loss before tax (2019: loss before tax) for the year of the Group would have decreased/increased by HK$1,912,000 (2019: decreased/increased by HK$3,945,000) as a result of higher/lower interest income.

The Group has interest earning assets in securities margin loans to clients and the exposure to interest rate risk mainly arises on certain client securities margin accounts with floating interest rates. As at 31 December 2020, if the interest rate on the margin loans is 50 basis points higher/lower, which was considered reasonably possible by management, with all other variables held constant, the loss before tax for the year would have decreased/increased by HK$554,000 (2019: the Group's loss before tax would be decreased/increased by HK$982,000) as a result of higher/lower interest income.

33. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (Continued) Credit risk

The Group is exposed to credit risk for all financial assets that a client or counterparty in a transaction may default on settlement. The Group's maximum exposure to credit risk in the event that the counterparties fail to perform their obligations as at the end of the reporting period, in relation to each class of financial assets, is the carrying amount of those assets as indicated in the Group's consolidated statement of financial position. These amounts represent the worst case scenario of credit risk exposure to the Group, without taking account of any collateral held or other credit enhancements attached. The Group does not hold any collateral or other credit enhancements to cover its credit risks associated with its financial assets, except that the credit risks associated with accounts receivable from securities margin clients is mitigated to the extent that they are secured by listed securities.

In order to minimise the credit risk, the management of the Group has set up the Credit Review Committee responsible for determination of credit approvals.

As at 31 December 2020, the Group has concentration of credit risk as 30% (2019: 27%) and 47% (2019: 73%) of the total accounts receivable was due from the Group's largest customer and the five largest customers respectively within the brokerage and margin financing business segment.

During the year ended 31 December 2019, the Group has renegotiated the contractual terms with two securities margin financing clients. Based on the assessment performed by the Group, both are regarded as non-substantial modification.

The amortised cost before the modification of a receivable was $236,938,000 and the modification loss amounting to $1,111,000 was recorded in profit or loss during the year ended 31 December 2019. As at 31 December 2019, the gross receivable of $129,634,000 was classified under 12-month ECL (stage 1) since the borrower has fulfilled the repayment obligations after the modification.

The amortised cost before the modification of the receivable was $289,085,000 and the modification loss amounting to $652,000 was recorded in profit or loss during the year ended 31 December 2019. As at 31 December 2019, the gross receivable of $285,179,000 was classified under lifetime ECL — credit-impaired (stage 3) since the borrower did not fulfil the repayment obligations after the modification.

Management is confident in its ability to continue to control and sustain minimal exposure of credit risk arising from below major recognised financial assets as stated in the consolidated statement of financial position:

- Bank deposits and balances are placed with authorized financial institutions in Hong Kong and reputable financial institution in PRC, which management believes are of high credit quality.
- For accounts receivable from securities margin clients, the Group's policy requires the review of individual outstanding amounts regularly depending on individual circumstances or market condition. The assessment normally encompasses collateral held, which is valued on a daily basis for marketable securities, and the anticipated receipts for that individual account. Details of the provision for impairment losses of accounts receivable from securities margin clients are included in note 16 to the consolidated financial statements.
- For the debt securities investments, management monitors the credit quality on these investments on a regular basis and consider the credit risk is manageable.

33. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (Continued)

Foreign currency risk

The Group's foreign currency exposures arise mainly from the exchange rate movements of United States dollar ("U.S. dollar").

The Group considers the risk exposure to foreign currency fluctuation in U.S. dollar would be minimal as long as the Hong Kong dollar remains pegged to the U.S. dollar.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group will encounter difficulty in raising funds to meet commitments associated with financial instruments. The Group manages to maintain its liquidity position at a prudent and adequate level. The Directors monitor the cash flows daily to ensure sufficient funds are available. The senior management would also review the liquidity level in compliance with the statutory requirements for the licensed subsidiaries.

The remaining undiscounted contractual maturity profile of the Group's non-derivative financial liabilities at the end of the reporting period, based on the earliest date on which the Group is required to settle, and the Group's derivative financial liabilities at the end of the reporting period, based on the remaining contractual maturities, is summarised below:

33. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (Continued) Equity price risk

Equity price risk is the risk that the fair values of equity securities decrease as a result of changes in the levels of equity indices and the values of individual securities. The Group is exposed to equity price risks arising from individual equity investments classified as financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income and financial assets at fair value through profit or loss as at 31 December 2019 and 2020, details of which have been set out in notes 13 and 15 to the consolidated financial statements respectively. The Group's listed investments are mainly listed on the Stock Exchange, the Shenzhen Stock Exchange ("SZSE") and the Shanghai Stock Exchange ("SSE") and are valued at quoted market bid prices at the end of the reporting period. The risk management department is responsible for monitoring the equity price risk.

The market equity index for the Stock Exchange, SZSE and SSE at the close of business of the nearest trading day in the year to the end of the reporting period, and its respective highest and lowest points during the year were as follows:

	20	020	2019
		High/Low from		High/Low from
		1/1/2020 to		1/1/2019 to
	At 31/12/2020	31/12/2020	At 31/12/2019	31/12/2019

PRC — SSE Composite Index	3,473	3,473/2,660	3,050	3,271/2,464

Sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity analysis below has been determined assuming that the reasonably possible changes in the fair value of equity investments, with all other variables held constant had occurred at the end of the reporting period and had been applied to the exposure to equity price risk in existence at that date.

At the end of the reporting period, if the equity price had been 5% (2019: 5%) higher/lower with all other variables held constant, the Group's loss before tax would be decreased/increased by HK$64,111,000 (2019: the Group's loss before tax would be decreased/increased by HK$28,742,000) as a result of changes in fair value of listed financial assets classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss.

34. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

— Derivative financial liabilities

The following presents the assets and liabilities measured at fair value or required to disclose their fair value in these consolidated financial statements on a recurring basis at 31 December 2020 and 31 December 2019 across the three levels of the fair value hierarchy defined in HKFRS 13, Fair Value Measurement, with the fair value measurement categorised in its entirety based on the lowest level input that is significant to the entire measurement.

34. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS (Continued)

Management has assessed that the carrying amounts of other non-current assets, accounts receivable, other receivables and other assets, cash and cash equivalents, accounts payable and other payables approximate their fair values largely due to the short term maturities of these instruments or immaterial impact on discounting for non-current assets.

Movements in Level 3 fair value measurements of financial assets

The movements in fair value measurements within Level 3 during the year are as follows:

	HK$'000
Equity investments at fair value through other comprehensive income
At 1 January 2019	1,079
Total gains recognised in other comprehensive income	388
Disposed during the year	(1,467)
At 31 December 2019, 1 January 2020 and 31 December 2020	-

The fair value is determined with reference to the latest net asset value of the investments which are the deemed resale reference price of the investments. Management have determined that the reported net asset values represent fair value of these investments.

Description of the valuation techniques and inputs used in Level 2 fair value measurement

The fair values of certain debt securities, unlisted fund investments and net assets attributable to holders of non-controlling interests in consolidated investment fund are determined by using valuation techniques and inputs using third-party pricing information without adjustment from the fund managers and the bank.

(i) Debt securities

The fair value of debt securities was determined with reference to the quoted price provided by brokers/ financial institutions in the absence of an active market.

(ii) Unlisted fund investments

Note 15 to the consolidated financial statements provides detailed information about the valuation techniques used in the determination of the fair value of the unlisted fund investments.

(iii) Net assets attributable to holders of non-controlling interests in consolidated investment fund

The fair value was determined with reference to the net asset value of the underlying investments which were valued at active market price.

Valuation processes of the Group

The Directors determine the policies and procedures for both recurring and non-recurring fair value measurement. In estimating the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Directors use market-observable data to the extent it is available. Where Level 1 inputs are not available, the Directors would engage third party qualified valuer to perform the valuation for significant assets and liabilities.

35. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The primary objective of the Group's capital management is to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern in order to support the Group's growth and maximise shareholder's value.

The Group manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it, in light of changes in economic conditions, future capital requirement of the Group and investment opportunities. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the dividend payment to shareholders, return capital to shareholders or issue new shares and bonds. No changes were made in the objectives, policies or processes during the years ended 31 December 2020 and 31 December 2019.

The Group is not subject to any externally imposed capital requirements except for certain subsidiaries engaged in securities and futures dealings and broking, corporate finance and investment advisory services, asset management and insurance broking services which are regulated entities under the Securities and Futures Commission, the Insurance Authority and subject to the respective minimum capital requirements.

The Group monitors capital using a gearing ratio, which is total borrowings divided by the total shareholders' equity. The Group's policy is to maintain the gearing ratio at a reasonable level. At the end of the reporting period, there were borrowings of HK$1,548,676,000 (2019: HK$1,549,172,000) for financing the operations of the Group which resulted in a gearing ratio of 546.3% (2019: 367.0%).

Notes:

(i) Contributed surplus

Contributed surplus represents the difference between the aggregate net asset value of subsidiaries acquired as a result of the reorganisation and the nominal amount of the Company's shares issued for the acquisition. Under the Companies Act 1981 of Bermuda (as amended), the contributed surplus of the Company is available for distribution. However, the Company may not declare or pay a dividend, or make a distribution out of the contributed surplus, if there are reasonable grounds for believing that (i) it would, or would after the payment, be unable to pay its liabilities as they become due; or (ii) the realised value of its assets would thereby be less than the aggregate of its liabilities and its issued share capital and share premium accounts.

(ii) Share premium

The share premium account of the Company of HK$248,918,000 (2019: HK$248,918,000) can be distributed in the form of fully paid bonus shares pursuant to the Companies Act 1981 of Bermuda (as amended).

(iii) Distributable reserves

At the end of the reporting period, in the opinion of the Directors, there is no reserve of the Company available for distribution to shareholders subject to the restriction stated above (2019: Nil).
